Preface

In previous years the Federation has issued an Annual and Precinct Program separately, but it being the belief of the Federation as a whole that better results could be obtained in all departments by combining the two, it was decided at the last Board Meeting to do so, and we offer herein these two features.

This Annual—really the official reference work of our Federation—offers to you the opportunity to become familiar with the purpose of our organization and the methods by which it is obtained, and is compiled by the retiring President, Mrs. Florence C. Floore.

The Precinct Program—compiled by Mrs. W. C. Martin, Rural Life Chairman, contains a program from each Department, and if adhered to will put you in touch with the work and advantages of these different departments, as well as show to you the advantages of co-operative work in the Federation.

This book is the property of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and dedicated to the Women of Texas.

COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed,
Let us be done with fault-finding and self-seeking.
May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self pity and without prejudice.
May we be never hasty in judgment and always generous. Let us take time for all things. Make us grow calm, serene, gentle.
Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.
Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.
And may we strive to touch and know the great common woman's heart of us all; and
O Lord, let us forget not to be kind.

MRS. LEE. JOSEPH, THE NEW PRESIDENT, SETS HIGH MARK FOR TEXAS WOMEN.

To Texas Club Women:

The world is slowly receding from the ruin and wreckage of war. You, as thoughtful citizens, are recognizing the duty of making your contribution to well ordered and stabilized conditions.

Your definite service to your state, during this administration, is to combat ignorance everywhere; to create a friendly attitude toward Education; to strive to build up a public sentiment in Texas, that will demand an educational system second to none, and at the same time seek to develop a citizenship rooted and grounded in the cardinal virtues, Truth, Honesty, Sobriety and Courage.

Remember that Democracy will endure only as it rests upon a foundation of an enlightened and a righteous citizenship.

We women lay the foundation.

Yours faithfully,

(MRS. LEE) LILLY T. JOSEPH,
President Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

Do Women Really Want to Be On An Equal Footing With Men?

We offer the same banking service to the young woman in the business world as we do the young man.

Yet, invariably he will make use of a savings account, a little later come to us for an investment, soon open a checking account and seek the advice and assistance of our officers in his finances. In short, he builds up his credit.

Seldom, does a young woman climb this ladder to credit—not even when “making a man’s salary.”

Young Women, why don't you?

MRS. WINTER'S MESSAGE.

My dear Club Women of Texas:

To nations as to individuals, there seem to come great tides of opportunity. Such a crisis is upon us now, in a swiftly moving world where all forces, good and evil, are rushing at each other in continual turmoil. When we fear upheavals, let us remember that our greatest menace is not from revolutionaries, but from our own sluggishness and inertia. The right-thinking and well-wishing people are in the majority, but while they are quiescent, we are menaced by minority rule. If such groups as we represent, sane, public spirited, all-American, stand together and move together, our country will keep its balance. This is why our organization is so much more than organization sounds. It is an opportunity to create and maintain active and saving energies. Some immediate duties loom large.

To so readjust our national budget that public health, education, justice and economic decencies between all classes shall be our major objects and not, as now, the lesser things.

To swing America back to her high idealism. Moral results do not come from moral energies. We cannot solve our fundamental difficulties today without cleansing our lives and spirits and this can not be done by laws and institutions or even by education alone. We need the law-abiding spirit more than we need new laws. We need the kind of citizenship that makes our governmental forms a living structure—the natural expression of the soul of the people.

Our Art and Literature and Music should be this final crown of all civic activities.

Faithfully yours,
 (MRS. THOMAS G.) ALICE AMES WINTER,
 President General Federation of Women's Clubs.

ADDRESS GIVEN BY MRS. FLORENCE C. FLOORE

President, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, at the Twenty-Third Annual Convention, San Antonio, November Eighteenth.

"This is a time of test and trial for America." "This is a period of transition," "of revision," "of reconstruction," "this is a time of beginnings," "of forward movements," "this is the dawn of a new era," "this is woman's day."

These were some of the phrases used during the past summer on the Chautauqua, N. Y. platform. I heard men of national and international authority utter them.

We, here tonight, do not need these learned men to convince us that "the old things have passed away." We have only to think back, many of us, to our childhood, then look around us today. A generation ago railroad trains were few and slow; now they are many and rapid; finding the earth too slow, we fly through the air. Our mail is carried across country in one-third the time that our fastest railroad trains of today could carry it. And even that does not satisfy. The telegraph and long-distance telephone are used daily, by club women as well as by business men. Once a cotton picker wanted only fifty cents per 100 pound, now he is paid $2.50 or more; then, he sought the work; now, he is importuned to do it. A similar change has come to the workman in every field of industry—factory worker, carpenter, brick mason. And the dreaded High Cost of Living makes it harder to feed and and clothe a family on $150.00 per month than it used to be on $50.00.

The difference is as great along governmental lines as industrial. Once, High Tariff meant Republican, and Free Trade Democratic; now, can anybody tell which party wants either? It was strange, indeed, to see Texas indorsing a Republican national amendment, and New Jersey pleading States' Rights against it. I need not take time to speak of other state and national changes; all of you know them. Certainly Woodrow Wilson is right: "Nothing is done in America today as it was done twenty years ago."

"The old things have passed away within the home," also; and with them have gone many of the occupations that filled so full the day of our mothers and grandmothers. Their duties were confined to their households because, within the boundaries of the homestead were done all things for the welfare of their children, their homes and those of their dependents. When machinery made it profitable for men to weave carpets, spin cloth, make clothes and prepare food, these things could be done cheaper outside than inside the home. Because of this, and of household labor-saving devices, women had much time left on their hands, and, after their children had died of impure milk, bad beef, of infection from sweat shops, or from other causes entirely outside the homes, women woke up to the fact that, if they were to safeguard their children and their homes, this time that was now theirs must be used for looking well to the ways of their communities, their state, and even the world. And in order to have right conditions in homes, communities, state and nation the laws affecting these conditions must be right. In the making of these laws there must be the viewpoint of the woman as well as of the man. The co-operation of both is essential for a worthwhile world as well as for a good home. And thus came for woman the New Day, when, in order to keep her own respect and that of thinking men and women, she must perform her duties both within and without her home.

"Woman and the New Era" was the subject of an entire week's program in Chautauqua, N. Y., last summer. Addresses were given by women whose ideas were of national value. Mrs. George Bass of Chicago, and Miss Mary Garrett Hay of New York, spoke respectively for Women in the Democratic and Republican Parties. Mrs. Samuel Semple of Pennsylvania, for Women and Industry; Mrs. Montgomery of New York, for Women and the Church; Miss Annie Webb Blanton, of Texas, for Women and Education; and Mrs. Pennybacker of Texas, for Women as Citizens. During this week our General Federation President, Mrs. Thos. G. Winter, of Minneapolis, (Minn.) gave five addresses. Under the subject "Citizenship, Old and New," she discussed the American Woman in Public Life; in her Home; Women in Society and Politics; Women and the American Ideals. To make its members more efficient workers in all these capacities is the desire of the Federation of Women's Clubs.

"A group of organized women in every community who can be depended upon to promote all movements looking toward the betterment of life," is our General Federation President's ideal for the federated club.

The question some of us women are asking ourselves is, "Have we, in Texas, caught this vision; and are we doing all in our power to make it a reality?" We believe we have the ideal, and that we are working toward its accomplishment. We feel that if the Federation is to prove worthy to be used for the "promotion of all movements looking toward the betterment of life," we workers must concentrate our endeavors to upbuilding, not a showy new addition to the edifice, but to strengthening the foundation already laid, and continuing the structure as begun by other administrations. This is the policy we are following. In the revision of our Constitution, ordered at our last convention, we have tried to make the organization more stable by a better financial foundation. To aid in the understanding and carrying out of our American ideal that opportunity for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness be granted to all, the first recommendation given the Board of Directors, which was unanimously adopted, was that the Federation concentrate its efforts on Americanization.

Americanization to us, means first, getting for ourselves a knowledge and realization of our country's ideals; and then a sympathetic teaching of these ideals by practice, as well as precept, to others yet ignorant, both native and foreign born. All departments of our organization were asked to make their plans so as to emphasize whatever relationship exists between their departments and Americanization. All chairmen realizing, as one of them said, that the one big word before us is Americanization, and the big work to be done is Americanizing, have carried out the recommendations in their work.

Following the plans of these chairmen, there are thousands of women in hundreds of clubs reaching into all parts of our big state, who are studying and working for better homes, better schools, better communities, a better state in which to rear true, virile Americans.

This administration in its plans for Americanization, decided through its Board of Directors, to stress two specific lines of work. Both these were suggested in General Recommendations by our past presidents. Our last President asked (1) That some definite step be taken toward formulating a plan for the organization of a county unit, and (2) That the Federation co-operate in every way possible, not in conflict with its constitution, with other women's organizations in the state. Both these recommendations were unanimously adopted. Following the first recommendation the formation of County Rural Life clubs composed of both city and country women is being pushed all over the state; the second, co-operation with other women's organizations with similar ideals and purposes, a Joint Legislative Committee is being formed. The object is to secure the enforcement of laws and better laws for the women and children of Texas. In both these endeavors, Texas is following the example of the General Federation.

In this Americanization, as in other work, the women of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs are trying to meet their opportunities and responsibilities in this New Day by bending their efforts to forwarding in their communities and the state "all movements looking toward the betterment of life;" especially are they working for the betterment of that bulwark of civilization—the home, and for the safety of the child, which is the hope of the world.

ADDRESS OF FLORENCE C. FLOORE,

President, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.
(Given in Annual Convention, Nov., 1921.)

"The One Great Question!" This heading in large black letters stood out as I unfolded a Los Angeles paper. 'Twas in the pullman. There were other papers, a magazine or two and a much desired book. Though anxious for these on this day across the desert, that, free from interruptions, was to be all my own, instead of reading as I'd thought I should, I found my mind, as had grown to be its custom, going to our Federation and its work. This: "The One Great Question," I thought should be my subject when for the last time as their president I talk to my beloved club women.

How anxious I found myself, after a three months' absence, to get back to Texas near them; near enough to see some of them and to communicate quickly with others of them. Knowing these women, their womanliness, their sincerity, the power of them in this big organization, I said to myself—"I dare not talk in any other way to these with whom I've been so intimately associated for two years, who are my club children and with whom I've worked day in and day out for 100 weeks. For I have worked in co-operation with you daily for almost every day during these two years. Whoever said that for the three months each year that the clubs are disbanded, there'll be no work, did not know you and did not know Texas conditions. Club letters, it is true, are not so numerous these summer months, but that is made up for by the activities of club women, individually, for Texas' good. There's always a special session of our Legislature, or something, happening in Texas and where things are stirring that may help or hurt Texas homes or Texas children, there's sure to be active interest by some of Texas' club women.

You of my club family, whose decisions I've tried to carry out, with whom sometimes I've disagreed, almost fallen out, and always made up (and, as in my own small family, loved better than ever after each disagreement); you whom, in our personal relationships, I have never found wanting—knowing you as I do, I knew there on that train coming home to you that when I gave, face to face, my last message as your chief servant, that message must be on "The One Great Question"—if it could be determined what is for this organization the one great question—the vital need now.

Perhaps you'll be interested in opinions given by some of our country's finest citizens as to America's greatest need now. A member of President Harding's cabinet recently said, "The national crime of America is the daily failure of America's citizens to interest themselves in America's affairs." A national authority on American conditions said, during an address in one of our Texas cities: "America's motto, as Americans live it, is 'let George do it!'" A United States District Judge wrote to our General Federation President: "The real menace to America today is the indifference of men and women to their responsibility and their duty" and, even before she had this letter Mrs. Winter, in an address, had said: "The great menace of America is silence and sluggishness and laziness." What have these opinions to do with us?

I recall the work of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs since, as charter member, I saw it organized 25 years ago; I've watched it grow from a small band of women whose object was self-culture, to this vast organization with machinery reaching into every part of our state, and with an avowed object of service. I remember that scarcely a movement for human betterment in our communities has been started, hardly an effort for the welfare of the people has been made but that these women were among the first, either to originate or to help.

One of the foremost newspaper men of Texas once said to me: "The club women have had the vision without which the people perish. They have also given real aid in making of these visions realities."

During my two years as your president, I have had thousands of letters from you, have paid hundreds of visits to your clubs and communities, stayed in your homes; and I am convinced that yours is the desirable background for club women. I have found you commanding respect in your communities, admiration and love in your own households; your children have shown the result of careful, wise training. As leaders, many of you have given in this organization, conscientious efforts for the good of the state and nation. Reports regularly reaching the president's office show faithful work done in the past two years by chairmen of Art, Civics, Club Extension, Conservation, Forestry, Industrial and Social Conditions, Motion Picture, Literature, Parks and Playgrounds, Scholarships, Thrift, Rural Life and other departments. Your Executive Committee and officers have not lagged—the vice-presidents, the secretaries, the treasurer, have worked even during the night hours performing duties you gave them.

Is the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs then filling its part today? The big part that should be played by an organization of 40,000 women with machinery reaching throughout the length and breadth of Texas? Yes, friends, we are doing as much as those splendid women in the Federation 25 years ago did. But you know, and I know, that this isn't the same world in which they lived. Our horizon has widened, so must our work be increased and broadened. All of us know this. Some of us realize it; and all of us would realize it if we would but stop to think, and if he wanted to realize it. Forty thousand women, all with some training in team work and in citizenship; all organized, all voters—all saying that they want the best education for their children; that they want Texas forests rehabilitated and preserved; that there may in the future be good land and reasonable homes for Texas children; that they want the health of our children intelligently looked after in our schools; that they want prison conditions in Texas such that the people of Texas need not blush with shame when this is mentioned in other states—all saying, by resolutions unanimously passed in convention assembled, that they want these and other worth-while measures. Believing this, your president with some of your department chairmen went to our Legislature—not that we wanted to go, anymore than you would want to do. We went because you had chosen us. We went to work for those measures that you had unanimously said must be pushed. When your representatives affirmed in legislative committees that they voiced the opinion of 40,000 women who wanted this thing—when your resolutions were given these committees,—at first we were received with respect amounting almost to awe. These gentlemen believed that your committee really represented the desires of 40,000 voters. But, when later we again saw them we were greeted only as ordinary individuals, having each one vote; and we learned that hundreds of letters had reached these legislators and paid emissaries had talked to them against our measures, and that they had few messages, few letters from you who said you wanted these things. Ten letters, or even one hundred letters, make little impression, you know, from an organization of 40,000 members; and in most cases, the legislators didn't even have the one hundred—or the ten.

One consecrated woman who had spent years preparing for the work you have given her as department chairman, disappointed that you failed to cooperate with her in carrying out your commands, said, "We say to these representatives and to our Governor, that we voice the desires of 40,000 women, but do we, in fact? Our women by their resolutions have told us to work for this special piece of legislation; but evidently they didn't really mean it." Another said, "We might as well look the fact in the face, our women have flunked. They, with no dissenting voice and all voting, pass resolutions on matters of tremendous importance to the women and children of the state and then go home and forget all about it." One of the legislators said to me, "Some of us men here want what you good women want, but we do not get the support from the members of your organization we need and expected. Won't you say to your women that most of the things they are working for are affected by legislation, and that they cannot get results in the Legislature unless they stand solidly behind the men who are willing to push the measures the women want."

This summer, while with my dear mother in California, many telegrams were sent trying to secure the passage of legislation the Federation had endorsed. Many letters and telegrams came to your president about the situations during the regular and called sessions of the Legislature. Among these was one saying, "Bless these women for the help they have given in the educational situation; but, oh, that we could have awakened them a little sooner." Another said, "Our women must watch and work and try and send to Austin from their districts representatives that sincerely and intelligently want the best for Texas children. If we are not on the alert we shall have to send these children hereafter for best educational advantages to other states."

Do you know that sometimes I wish that we, the members of this organization, were not so comfortable. I believe we should then not idly ask concernink this organization to which we belong, "what is the Federation doing anyway?" We should arouse ourselves and see that in this serious hour the Federation is doing something, and we should know what that something is? We'd be ashamed if we were a group of splendid, intelligent social leaders in our community to have this said, that was said to your president about to speak to such a group, "Don't talk about the Federation. These women belong, but they are not interested in the Federation." Too many of us forget that we are members of the largest band and the best organized group of women in our state, and in these United States. We need awakening to the realization that we are mothers of men and that even now, as during the World War, we must be alert and diligent if the paths for our children's feet are to be kept safe; nay it seems now that we and many more of us in the world must be up and doing if this civilization we hold dear is to be preserved for our children and their children.

This President's Evening will stand out in history, not because of the past presidents' and president's messages—these each year at this time you hear—but for a special reason, one that with you I count a rare privilege. On this evening you shall hear one of Texas' greatest orators—our state's highest official, Governor Pat M. Neff. Well I know I could not, and I would not if I could, take one jot or one title from the impression on you and on me of his words of wisdom. But one thing I, your chosen servant of two years, know with the knowledge that even the wisest man in our state cannot know; and that is the duty now before us as members of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs; and while remembering what he has this evening said to us, I would have you not forget this; ours is the duty to know conditions in our communities, in our state and in the world; ours the duty to drive from our organization the menace of silence, sluggishness, laziness; ours to say that among us the crime of failure to interest ourselves in our country's affairs shall have no place; ours to determine that in our band indifference to duty shall not exist; ours to realize women's new opportunities and to realize also that opportunity means responsibility. The one great question then for us members of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is the question of Individual and Collective Responsibility.

REPORT OF FLORENCE C. FLOORE, PRESIDENT TEXAS FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUB—1919-21.

When two years ago you called me to serve you as president, you hoped and I hoped that long before this November, 1921, we of this Federation should find that its lines had fallen in easier places.

In November, 1919, many of us believed that with the great world war ended our most difficult work had ended; that reconstruction would speedily and surely be completed; and then our work along educational, sociological and humanitarian lines would—with few hindrances—go forward. Not so. It is still uncertain whether the world will recover from this "inconceivably disastrous war," whose effects are felt even in every town, village and county of Texas.

This Federation, whose aim is "a group of organized women in every community who can be depended upon to promote all movements looking toward the betterment of life," wanted to do its part—as it still wants to do its part—be it easy or difficult, toward making of the new world being formed, a better world. To this end our general plan has been to lend our efforts as an organization and as individuals toward making better Americans. First to get for ourselves—fuller realization of our American ideals and then by living and teaching these to induce others—native and foreign born—to understand, live and teach them; thus helping to give eventually to every American the chance for "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

While helping to reconstruct the world we have had to be busy reconstructing ourselves, because our organization also had suffered from the effects of the war.

That we might better aid in making a new world, our first thought was given to paying our debts. And we have paid them. Two years ago we owed over $2,000. Now, every cent of our indebtedness has been paid and—we owe nothing.

Changes were needed in our Constitution and By-Laws. These were revised. These revised Constitution and By-Laws will appear in our next Club Bi-Annual to be issued soon. It was decided by our Board of Directors that, beginning with this Administration, a directory should be issued at the end of the first year's work and a Club Bi-Annual at the close of the Administration; the Bi-Annual to contain a directory of the clubs, reports, names of officers and chairmen, the Constitution and By-Laws, etc.

Our dues were not large enough to meet our needs. We raised them. We were pauperizing our Federation by receiving from our workers, in addition to their time, talents and efforts—money. With this money accruing from raised dues, we shall be able to apportion more to officers and chairmen toward meeting the expense they must incur if they do well the work we have assigned them. This will not yet be entirely met. The additional funds will, however, start us on the road to independence and respect. It is hoped we shall continue thereon until we shall not have to ask first of any worker, has she money, and will she spend it in this work for us.

Though the dues were raised during this administration, not one cent accruing from this raise has been used by the administration. The increased amount was paid in for the first time just prior to this convention. And, in accordance with our By-Laws, the fund thus created has been reserved for the expenses of the next administration.

Two years ago our books showed the number of clubs in good standing in the Federation to be 162. Our books now show this number to be 578, with a membership of over 40,000.

In addition to these we may count the clubs of the Music Federation, that pays into our treasury $25.00 annually.

The Educational Loan Fund, established in 1908, with an amount of $1769.27, is increased now to $3,295.50. Every effort has been made by our treasurer to keep in circulation all of our loan fund. Since 1908 the Federation has helped 132 girls. We are now helping 25 girls toward getting an education. For this purpose we could have lent twice the amount we have.

Interest from our Endowment Fund continues, as heretofore, about $800 annually. We have, however, secured a guaranty for the safety of loans made from this fund.

New committees were needed. These were appointed, as follows:

- Armistice Day.
- Business and Industrial Relations.
- Home Demonstration Work.
- Scholarships, and

The Parliamentarian was made an appointive officer.

Our list of scholarships has been revised, so that every scholarship now enrolled is being used or is available. Many more scholarships can be secured by efforts from individual clubs; thus rendering a real service to our Texas girls.

We have reorganized our departments of work to conform with those of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. These will be given in the revised Constitution and By-Laws in the new Year Book.

We have made of our Board of Directors a larger and more democratic body. Whereas the board formerly consisted of about 22 voting members, 57 women, all with equal voting power now make up our Board of Directors. Texas' present Board of Directors plan was unanimously endorsed, by a majority of all the State Presidents assembled at the Salt Lake Council Meeting for Board of Directors, as best plan offered in all United States.

We have appointed a committee to study the relationship of the Federation to the negro problem.

We have appointed an official historian of the Federation, whose work begins with the records of the preceding Administration.

As Charter Members of the Council of Statewide Social Agencies, we have decided to co-operate in a survey of the Mexican population in Texas.

We have helped to bring about a closer co-operation between three Women's State Organizations, all "interested in right development and right conservation of our country's resources," by the formation of the "Joint Legislative Committee," composed of equal number of representatives from the Mother's Congress, the League of Women's Voters and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

This committee has functioned harmoniously during the last regular and called sessions of the Texas Legislature. At these times its members went to Austin and worked for legislation endorsed by the three organizations. The committee was, however, handicapped in its efficiency because no worthy chairman could be found who is able and willing to give her efforts and time and pay her own expenses during the entire sessions of the Legislature. Work vital in the lives of our children must be neglected unless there can be secured in some way an efficient head for this committee.

We have especially stressed Rural Work. Never has the world so needed food. This must be produced on farms. That people may be induced to stay on farms and go on farms, living conditions there must be made more attractive. Our aim in bringing this about has been the formation of rural and urban women into Rural Life Clubs, according to the plan worked out by our Rural Life Chairman, and set forth in our Precinct Year Book. This plan has been endorsed all over the country and adopted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs as their plan for Rural Work. Some kind of a county organization along those lines has been formed in about 60 counties.

Some of our slogans used in our work during the past two years are as follows: "Ignorance at work is dangerous;" "Know your Community;" "If the People Knew, the People Would Do;" "Americanization through Union and Knowledge;" "Study, Work and Pull Together;" "As you know, You Owe."

Fulfilling the duties of her office your president has:

Presided at 8 meetings of the Board of Directors.
Attended 12 District Meetings and 2 State Meetings.

Visited 100 County and City Federations and Individual Clubs.

Given approximately 300 Public Addresses, Talks and Greetings.

Traveled more than 6000 miles in the State.

Attended the Biennial in Des Moines, Iowa, and spoken for Texas Federation on President's Evening.

Attended in Salt Lake, Utah, the Council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, where she was one of the two State Presidents (the other being Colorado), asked to speak at State President's Dinner.

Secured with no expense to organization the publication of 1500 Club Annuals.

Co-operated with the State and National Governments, Educational and other Institutions, with other organizations and with individuals in their efforts for human betterment.

From the President's office has been sent 5353 letters.

Approximately 10,000 pieces of material have been sent out, either from her office or with the President's signature through other agencies. This was done to help in the work of the Federation or work along kindred lines.

More than 300 telegrams and telephone calls have gone from the president's office in the interest of the Federation.

Total communications sent out in the interest of work, more than 15,000.

She has written, almost immediately after his election, letters to the Governor of our State, enclosing resolutions passed by you and making the following urgent request of him: That women be appointed on the Boards of Educational Institutions in Texas; and that his influence and power be used to the end that Texas' prisons be made humane and up-to-date.

She has sent out through associated press a request that women discuss the question of Limitation of Armament in their clubs, pass resolutions favoring such limitation and send same to President Harding, to United States conferees, to their Senators, and Representatives, letting them know that the women of Texas are looking to them to give every aid in their power to prevent future wars.

She has sent a letter to President Harding urging the appointment of the President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs as one of the four women on the Official Advisory Committee for the Conference.

Your President has given during these two years all of her time to the Federation's endeavors. With the little secretary, Miss Galvin, she has worked during the summer months,—one year in Chautauqua, New York, and the other in California.

She has tried to keep in mind the responsibility that is ours, with our large membership and well organized machinery,—not only to carry our own special plans of work, but also to see that our machinery when needed is used by institutions, organizations and people working for the good of Texas.

In concluding her report, your president would express the gratitude she feels for the priceless privilege that has been hers in the two years' close association with you, and would urge of you a careful study of our Annual; especially of the Constitution and By-Laws governing this body, and a careful considering of plans as reported in the minutes of the meetings of our Board of Directors and of our conventions. She would especially urge that each one of us here this morning determine to make a conscientious offering of herself for co-operative work in order that this large and systematized organization may continue and increase its contribution toward making of the new world, a safe—a better world.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMENDATIONS.

Unanimously Endorsed in Convention, San Antonio, 1920.

1. RURAL CLUBS. The great need of the world today is production on farms. Though the population of Texas is rapidly increasing, the marvelous growth is in its towns and cities, while all over the state there are empty houses and idle farms. To remedy this, the country must be made more attractive for living. In view of these facts, and that the past three administrations have stressed rural work for the Federation; and our Past President recommends that some definite step be taken toward formulating a plan for a county unit, your President RECOMMENDS that this convention endorse a plan for Rural Life Clubs, now in effect as adopted by our Board of Directors, and that delegates urge the club women to form Rural Life Clubs with the ultimate aim of having such a club in every county in Texas.

2. OFFICIAL ORGAN. Experience in the past clearly demonstrates the need and value of an official organ through which news of federated work may be disseminated, and officers, chairmen, and club members may be brought closer together in working out plans and programs; and through which the public may have a wider knowledge and better understanding of federated work. For these reasons your President RECOMMENDS that a subscription campaign for the Dallas Saturday Night be made a part of the yearly program of each federated club, and the results be made a part of the annual and district reports of every federated club.

3. JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE. The increasing volume of legislation that affects women and children interests workers for the child, the home and the community, The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs has always worked for such legislation. So have other women's organizations of the State. The co-operation of all these organizations will make surer the legislation wanted, with expenditure of less time, effort and expense. Because of these facts, and in compliance with our Past President's recommendations, endorsed at our last convention, that the T. F. W. C. co-operate in every way possible, not in conflict with our Constitution and By-Laws, with all women's organizations in the State, your President

RECOMMENDS that this convention endorse the tentative plan as adopted by your Board, as follows:

Purpose—To amend existing laws and to secure the passage of such new laws as shall bring Texas to the accepted standards of excellence upon the chosen subjects, and to act as watchman against the passage of harmful legislation.

Organization—The Legislative Chairman and President of each organization to be ex-officio members of the committee. The committee to effect its own organization, elect its chairman, secretary and treasurer, and to outline its rules for action; to organize an advisory committee of lawyers to help in the preparation of bills and to advise on the legal phase of problems. Subjects for legislation, selection of secretary and plan of organization of Joint Legislative Committee shall be presented for approval to the Board of Directors of each organization. The secretary shall take her office, the subjects for legislation shall be decided upon and the plan become effective only after approval of all of said Boards.

Respectfully submitted,
FLORENCE C. FLOORE.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATIONS

Unanimously Endorsed in Convention, Fort Worth, 1921.

Whereas, new clubs are continually being added to our organization, and,

Whereas, these clubs in all parts of our big state do, and should, give their first thought and endeavor to the betterment of their own communities, and,

Whereas, an understanding by its members of the plans and policies of the organization as a whole is essential for efficient work.

I Recommend the annual observance by all clubs of Federation Day in October or November with a program containing questionnaire about the organization and its work, similar to that gotten out by our Literature Chairman.

Whereas, the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs has long directed its efforts toward the making of better people and better citizens, and,

Whereas, there is special need today that both native and foreign born be impressed with their privileges and their responsibilities as voters in the world's greatest commonwealth, and,

Whereas, becoming a citizen of the United States should be a profound experience.

I Recommended the observance by the club women of Texas of Citizenship Day according to plans outlined by the Chairman of the Department of American Citizenship in the General Federation, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker.

Whereas, the individual club is a part of the State Federation and State Federation a part of the General Federation, and,

Whereas, Knowledge of both these organizations will increase the efficiency of individual clubs and therefore the efficiency of both State and National organizations:

I Recommend that every federated club in Texas be urged to appoint from its membership a federation counselor whose duty it shall be to report at each meeting something of interest from State or National Federation, and, further, that each club subscribe to the General Federation News and the State Official Organ (so soon as we have one) for this counselor.

Whereas, the efficiency of the Federation's work is greatly hampered by lack of information, especially in regard to the Federation's plans and policies:

Whereas, owing to the increase in the growth and interest of the members of the organization much time and energy is required for giving such information, and,

Whereas, the president cannot attend to these and her other manifold duties:

I Recommend that a Bureau of Information be formed whose duties shall be to keep in touch with plans and policies of the Federation; with the state's resources, libraries, the extension departments of state educational institutions, etc., and pass information along these lines to General Federation Headquarters, to clubs and others desiring such information.

Whereas, interests are varied in our big country, and,

Whereas, various groups of states have formed Federations within the General Federations of Women's Clubs, I recommend, that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs take the initiative in forming the Federation of the Gulf States and invite Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, and such other states as the proper authorities may see fit to invite, to join with Texas in such a Federation.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT FROM TEXAS TO THE GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS, 1920-22.

Given During Annual Convention, T. F. W. C., Fort Worth, 1921.

Your Director has served you since June, 1920. During this time she has attended four meetings of the Board of Directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs as follows: One in Des Moines, Iowa, June, 1920; one in Washington, D. C., September, 1920, and two in Salt Lake City, Utah; one preceding and one following the Council Meeting of our national organization, June, 1921. This Council Meeting which was attended both as your State President and your director from Texas, was a sort of family conference of the General Federation with State Federations—a heart-to-heart discussion together of mutual interest.

Our national organization, composed of the 48 states, the Alaska and District of Columbia Federations, has as members more than two million women.

Under its present splendid leadership it is recognized "now as never before perhaps as the greatest educational and stabilizing force in the country. Prominent men and women of affairs in the field of journalism, education and commerce have spoken of it as 'great organization both in efficiency and spirit.'"

Texas furnished two among the leaders of this organization, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker and Miss Maggie W. Barry; the one, chairman of the Department of American Citizenship; the other, chairman of the Division of Home Economics.

With us during this convention also are the two other chairmen of the General Federation, the Chairman of Literature, Dr. Aurelia Henry Rheinhardt, President of Mills College, California, and Mrs. Marx Oberndorfer, of Chicago, Chairman of Music.

Among the reports discussed in Salt Lake none created more interest than that of General Federation Headquarters, situated at 415 Maryland Building, Washington, D. C. Probably no power, unless it be the untiring efforts and the influence of our consecrated President, Mrs. Winter, has made a greater contribution to the force of the Federation during the past year than has Headquarters under its Director, Miss Lida Hafford. This is a clearing house for club work all over our nation. Here may be held consultations about the great work of the General Federation. Here may be found any information needed about the Federation and its work; here may be had, too, almost any information needed by the members of the General Federation. Here during the past year approximately 55,000 letters and pamphlets were sent out. Year books of your clubs and papers given in your local clubs are wanted at Headquarters. Clippings of interest are needed at Headquarters. Use Headquarters; help Headquarters. When in Washington visit Headquarters. Miss Hafford suggests that you send to those wives of your representatives in Washington, that in Texas did club work, as introduction to Headquarters.

Another great force in the national organization's efficiency is the General Federation News, edited by a Texas woman now living in Fayetteville, Arkansas—Mrs. Leslie Stringfellow (James J.) Read. No club woman can afford to be without this little paper. It is worth much more than the price of fifty cents per year to read in it Mrs. Winter's, Dr. Rheinhardt's, Mrs. Barry's, or Mrs. Obendorffer's communication to club women. It is also worth many times the price per year to learn in which state each month Mrs. Pennybacker is speaking and to know the message she is giving in these states. Your Director hopes that 500 subscriptions for the General Federation News will be sent to Mrs. Read from this convention.

In Salt Lake was discussed the work of the Legislative Council, composed of 14 national organizations of women. Each state was urged to continue work for the Fess Bill on Home Economics, the bill for United States Department of Education, the Shepard-Towner Maternity Bill; the National Library Service Bill; a bill providing for independent citizenship for married women and aliens; and at this Salt Lake Council it was learned that two states, Montana and Iowa report every club directly federated with the national body and all dues paid. Texas was reported in better standing than ever before; with no club of all 89 individual clubs belonging to the General Federation delinquent. Your Director believes that every individual club that can become directly affiliated with our General Federation will feel more than compensated for the dues thus expended by added interest thus secured and by information of importance found in the General Federation News sent free to all such clubs.

In the General Federation News you will find all about the next Biennial. This will be held, beginning June 21, 1922, in one of America's most beautiful, delightful and interesting spots—Chautauqua, New York. The program already promises to be of unusual interest. As chairman of this program your Director is glad to be able to tell you that there is every probability of having such people as Dr. George Vincent of Rockefeller Foundation, as Dr. Arthur Bestor, President of Chautauqua Institution, and the Queen of Roumania, and others equally desirable.

The Chautauqua Woman's Club, with Texas' Mrs. Pennybacker as President, and its 2,000 members will be hostess for the representatives. The good things to be had at this Biennial, the close association with leading women of this and other countries, the understanding of world conditions, the realization of woman's part in improving and changing these conditions; the inspiration and information to be found in Chautauqua next summer will prove invaluable. Plan now to be one of the large delegation Texas hopes to send to the Chautauqua Biennial, June 21, 1922.

Let us remember that in order to have our Federation function as it should, every member should understand the organization as a whole, and, more, every member should be interested in what these two million organized women in the General Federation are trying to do. Every member should be intelligently and unselfishly interested in her club and its aims—every club should be intelligently and unselfishly interested in the aims of its county and its district federation—every district federation should be intelligently and unselfishly interested in its state federation; then if every state federation were interested unselfishly and intelligently in the national organization, the power for good of our General Federation with its two million women could not be estimated. Let's carry out Texas' part in the chain, will you.

REPORT OF VICE PRESIDENT AT LARGE

"STUDY, WORK and PULL TOGETHER"—was the slogan adopted by your Vice President at Large.

In the two years' incumbency I have attended five board meetings and one or two informal conferences and this Third Annual Convention. In 1920 I attended the Fourth District Meeting (after Houston Ex. State Board); also, in the Spring of 1920, represented Mrs. Floore at the State Federation (San Antonio) of Music Clubs; addressing them on the importance to both organizations of their remaining in the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Represented the President officially on various matters of courtesy and minor importance in her absence from the State (1920). In April, 1921, officially represented her at San Antonio for clothing contest for High School girls, under the supervision of State Department of Education. Also attended a conference on Vocational Education in Austin, 1920, and made two trips to Austin in 1921 at the request of the President of State Forestry Assn. in connection with Forestry legislation.

Perhaps the most active work was arranging District dates and the president's itinerary in 1920; this necessitated thirty letters and several telegrams and long distance calls. Duplications of effort, without taking much labor from the president, resulted in relieving the Vice President at Large of this task in 1921.

A trip to Baylor College at Belton during the period of the summer school was one of the pleasantest duties performed. This was at the request of Mrs. E. G. Townsend, for an informal conference, which was designated "The Woman's Centennial Movement" being an effort to harmonize and correlate the activities in which women are engaged, to prevent duplication and to further organization in small communities, when none exist,—all for the purposes of civil betterment and an understanding of the duties of citizenship. Two addresses were made on this occasion.

Some investigations in regard to publicity work were made in September at the request of Mrs. Floore, without developing any especially new ideas on the subject. Your vice-president at large, concluding the plan proposed by the Press Chairman, Mrs. Hughes, to make use of the Associated Press, being the most feasible, if chairmen and clubs would co-operate systematically. Even with an official organ, it is necessary for the growth of the Federation that there be news stories for the general public.

In compliance with a resolution passed last year at San Antonio that the Federation endorse the work of the United Daughters in promoting the Jefferson Davis National Highway, an address on the subject was given at the Fourth District Meeting at Caldwell.

Quite a number of appeals for special action in various matters, during the absence of the President in California, were apparently neglected, but this was not due to indifference, but to the feeling that they were beyond the jurisdiction of the Vice-President. Some of them would, I think, have been beyond even that of the President!

Letters were sent by request to the Governor and representatives on questions of rural school appropriations and prison reform and other legislation which the Federation has endorsed. Probably the most important request complied with was the writing of an article of appeal in the State University Appropriation contest. This was sent to twenty papers and presume was published, judging by the letters of commendation which were received from over the State.

A financial report will be submitted to the Finance Committee and attached.

Of the delightful cementing of friendships, of twenty years, of the new ties formed, there is not time to speak, but the two years' association will ever remain as a fragrant memory in the years to come, for this is the compensation for sacrifice and hard work in the Texas Women's Friendship Clubs.

DECCA LAMAR WEST.

At Fort Worth, Texas,

REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY COVERING THE TERM FROM NOVEMBER, 1919, TO NOVEMBER, 1921.

To the President and Members of T. F. W. G.:

During the two years I attended the seven board meetings held and both of the annual conventions and recorded the proceedings of each. The minutes consisted of from seven to seventeen typewritten pages on legal size paper. The Dallas Board minutes of January 2-3, 1920, were turned over to a mimeographer and 300 copies made, 250 of which were mailed out to the various officers, chairmen and committees, in order that they might become familiar with the work the Board was doing.

The minutes of the other sessions, after being typewritten were forwarded to the Corresponding Secretary and she had them mimeographed as she could get the work done to better advantage.

Last summer I was asked by President Mrs. Florence C. Floore, to represent her, during her absence from the State, with a committee composed of the President of Mother's Congress, President

Texas League of Women Voters and Chairman of Legislative Committee of the Federation before the called session of the State Legislature upon such measures as might be proposed along the lines endorsed by the Federation. I had no occasion for appearing before the Legislature although I did go with the committee to see the Governor asking that he sign the bills passed by the Legislature improving Prison Conditions.

In response to a telegram from Miss Blanton I sent a message to the Free Conference Committee, asking that the educational department be not crippled by a ruinous cut in salaries.

At the request of Mrs. Barry I got in touch with the County Commissioners of this precinct and gave several reasons why the employment of a Home Demonstration agent would be a great help to the rural communities. Travis County now has the benefit of such agent, Miss Lois Erwin, formerly in this work in N. C.

About forty letters have been written pertaining to the work of this office.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, TEXAS FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS, 1919-21.

One of the innovations of this administration was the opportunity and privilege given the corresponding secretary to be the private secretary of the president. This working together day in and day out, almost every day, even during the summer months—often at night and sometimes on Sunday—has enabled the Corresponding Secretary to have a fuller knowledge and broader understanding of the plans, policies and machinery of the Federation than she otherwise could have had.

Your Corresponding Secretary wishes that each member of the Federation could have made a little visit to the President's office some time during the past two years. Lack of time prevents the presentation of many of the interesting things which statistics bring out and even more significant facts which cannot be expressed in figures.

Recommendations:

1. That all fixed expenditures be given a definite allowance as heretofore.

3. That the allotment for chairman be fixed as heretofore by the Finance Committee and that no reimbursement should be made any officers or chairman outside of offices receiving a fixed monthly allowance until the yearly itemized expense account on vouchered forms, sent by the treasurer have been returned to and approved by her.

4. That said chairman be reimbursed to the extent of this expenditure, providing they do not exceed specified allotment.

5. That the special finance committee should be merged into the regular Finance Committee as prescribed for in the Constitution and By-Laws, and that it shall be the added duty of this committee to study each year the estimated accounts rendered by the Board members in order that they may analyze the accounts and draw comparative data based upon committee expenditures and service. And this data be placed before the Federation in the form of reports and suggestions. It is the final conclusion of the committee that it will be impossible to take further definite steps to put the Federation of a firm financial basis, until:

1. Officers and chairmen are more accurate in keeping their own records and in reporting them to the proper authority.
2. The revenues of the Federation are appreciably increased.

The Finance Committee will also investigate ways and means by which the revenues of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs may be increased and make recommendations as to how this may be done.

Respectfully submitted,
MISS ANNA SHELTON,
MRS. BACON SAUNDERS,
MISS MARY E. GEARING,
Special Finance Committee.

PRESS

Believing that publicity is the greatest factor for the upbuilding of clubs, and club life, at the State Convention in San Antonio your Press Chmn. submitted to you a publicity plan, calling for a greater endeavor on the part of clubs in placing before the reading public their club activities. This, you adopted, and I am here today to say to you that through the past year this plan has been slowly but surely functioning and that it has had the endorsement of leading newspapers of the State, who have commended it for its excellent possibilities which will lead to the publication of more and better news and pledging their co-operation.

At this meeting the delegates pledged themselves to see to it that the plan was placed before their clubs and district presidents committed themselves to an enforcement of the rule to have club reporters appointed from these clubs, whose duties would be to see that local correspondents of daily papers and publishers of weeklies to be furnished with club news while it was NEWS.

The year's experience, however, leads your chairman to believe that a monthly press letter might be syndicated with excellent results. Two news letters have gone to the Federation News, published at Fayetteville, Arkansas; and here I pause to call to your attention this publication and bespeak your support for the organ of the General Federation which will be sent to you once a month for the small sum of fifty cents, which will prove a veritable inspiration; condensed though it needs must be, you will find more live club news than you can possibly find elsewhere; for these national leaders are trained women who recognize the importance of publicity in getting things over and, therefore, are its best contributors. This thought, I would if I could, leave indelibly stamped on your minds. Unless you contribute the news, no agency is going to prove a success.

It is not my desire to harness the race horses of the next administration to the chariot of this, but I do beg of you to build your apex broad enough that the pinnacle of your publicity work will not topple in the dust. Begin at home with your local clubs.

One suggestion I leave with you. If possible, appoint your State Press Chairman from the home city of the President. Thus will she have access to letters and telegram file and the close personal contact with the administration enabling her to give out the news while it IS news.

MRS. C. M. HUGHES, Wharton,
Chairman.

PRINTING AND BADGE

Madam President and Members of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs:

For years the various Printing and Badge Committees of the State Federation of Women's Clubs have made continued efforts to dispose of the official pins on hand, and to arouse, in the minds of the club women some enthusiasm about wearing them. The old design was never entirely satisfactory, this dis-satisfaction increasing as time went on and at the spring state meeting of the Board, when your Chairman reported that nearly all of the old pins had been finally disposed of and recommended that steps be taken to secure a pin more in keeping with the dignity of the Federation, instructions were given to secure new designs to be submitted to the fall meeting of that body.

Following these instructions well known firms, both in this state and in others, were asked to furnish designs. These were submitted to your State Board and that body adopted one of them as the official pin, authorizing your Chairman to take orders. The new design is our Texas star, of blue bonnet blue enamel, surrounded by a laurel wreath of gold. In the center of the star are the letters "Texas F. W. C." These pins will be made by a thoroughly reliable house and will be guaranteed to be of the best material and workmanship. Either gold plated pins, for One Dollar and Fifty Cents, or the solid gold for Three Dollars and Fifty cents, may be ordered now for early delivery.

The Teaxs Federation need no longer be ashamed of its state pin and your State Board hopes that every member of every club belonging to that organization will procure a pin and wear it proudly; that this little blue star, wreathed in gold may indeed become a beloved recognition pin to which all Texas club women are as loyal as, for instance, the Mason is to his square and compass.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. CHARLES D. REIMERS,
State Chairman of Printing and Badge Committee.

TRANSPORTATION.

Your Committee on Transportation has since the last annual meeting co-operated with the National Transportation Chairman and the Transportation Chairmen of other states in obtaining reduced rates for the Council meeting in Salt Lake City last June.

We have also secured a promise of one and one-half fare—on the certificate plan for this convention, provided we have two hundred fifty receipts for tickets presented to the Transportation Committee during this meeting.

Yours very truly,
MRS. C. W. SIMPSON,
Transportation Chairman.

ART

Your Art Committee has worked along lines more nearly approximating General Federation methods, requesting monthly reports from district chairmen, they in turn being furnished with carefully planned working instructions. In addition to monthly reports to State President's office, have kept the General Federation Chairman informed as to our activities in the State.

Have sent programs and much other information upon requests from clubs. Written one thousand and twenty-four letters, appeared before clubs with, and without exhibits; ever stressing the importance of art in the public schools, art in the home, art in dress, and art in industry. Have requested usage of three art programs annually, secured fifteen minutes additional time for art talks on programs of last district meetings, assembled information on fine buildings, murals and statuary in the State for a new publication of "The Hand Book of Art." A recent questionnaire to each club in the State elicits the information that about one club out of five is devoting one or more programs to the study of art—American Art taking precedence, few report steps taken toward securing art supervisors in Public Schools, though many report donation of copies of good pictures.

It is most gratifying to note the number of clubs staging local exhibits. One small City Federation brought to its women the wonderful "Better Homes Institute." Civil Art has not stood still. Much has been done for the beautification of our communities in the way of War Memorials, buildings and grounds, roads and parks. A resolution passed the Board and became a law during last Legislature exempting all Art galleries in the State from taxation.

We recommend the regulation of the bill board. Our especial efforts have been directed toward placing State and General Federation exhibits. This has been accomplished by the First District, having held forty nine of the seventy-two exhibits over the State.

MRS. W. S. DOUGLAS,
Chairman.

CIVICS

After careful study an outline of the Civics work was planned, printed, and five hundred copies sent to the District Chairmen for distribution. Index cards were also sent asking that the civics report of each club be kept on a separate card.

Miss Maud Van Buren, a national civics worker, sent a vast amount of well tabulated civic literature. This material has been used as a Civics Package Library. Hundreds of letters have been received asking for civic helps. Each letter has been answered and material sent. Special programs on a Community Thanksgiving, Municipal Christmas Tree, Arbor Day, and Citizenship Day have been issued.

Junior Civics has been stressed by urging the teaching of Community Civics in the public schools. Had a suggestive Junior Civic League Outline prepared.

Realizing the sound growth of the state is dependent on the country, we have worked for not only city planning, but also rural planning. To this end we have encouraged the co-operation with city and county officials in the improving of court house lawns, church property, school grounds, library yards, railway stations, and camping grounds for tourists.

From time to time this department has urged the planting of seasonable trees, flowers, and flower seeds. We have insisted that it is better to "Keep Clean Every Day" than "A Clean-Up Day Every Spring."

Civics is the basis and foundation for better citizenship. One of the gravest civic problems we have neglected is that of the negro. The influence of this committee has been exerted for better living conditions among the colored people. Instead of putting them in alleys to live, how much better citizens they would be in homes of their own with plenty of sunshine, clear yards, and bright blooming flowers. Is this not a subject we should seriously consider.

That definite constant progress is being made in the field of Civics is evidenced by the many letters, and by the encouraging and enthusiastic reports of the District Chairmen who have heartily and intelligently co-operated in promoting the policies of this Department.

Two things are essential for the success in Civic work. First: We must have a definite goal—a clearly seen objective point. Second: We must adjust our means to our ends. We must use what we have to get what we want. "While the value of any movement depends upon the success with which its practical details are worked out, yet in the final analysis the idealism of a movement is the mainspring of its vitality. Our ideals should be of the highest, and "our reach must ever exceed our grasp."

MRS. J. U. FIELDS, Chairman.

PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS

Texas is aroused as never before, to the importance of Parks and Playgrounds, as recreational places for people of all ages. The mind of the public has been quickened to a realization of the vast benefits which will flow socially and economically, from the establishment of town, city, county and State parks. The fact has been stressed, that in our present state of universal growth, we are neglecting our opportunities if we do not enter upon the establishment of Parks and Playgrounds as quickly as possible. For the past several years we have urged the securing of some beautiful Historical spot for parks and playgrounds as Memorials to our War Heroes; that the most fitting way to do homage to the dead, is to construct something that will serve the living. As a result of our ceaseless efforts, we are proud to report the following places as possessing such Parks and Playgrounds—Tyler, Waco, Temple, Stamford, Cisco, Orange, Houston, Beaumont, El Paso, Belton, Graham, Amarillo, Georgetown, San Antonio, Fort Worth, and Mineral Wells. Many of these parks contain from 30 to 300 acres, some 750 to 925 acres. Most of them have a lake where boating, fishing and bathing can be enjoyed, many have club houses, summer cottages, camping places, and well equipped recreational grounds. Reports from the several Districts, show great activity along the lines of parks and playgrounds work. Many towns support paid recreational supervisors, while in others, club women take turns at this work. Something near 300 Parks and Playgrounds have been established in the past two years. Some contain from 30 to 300 acres, some from 5 to 30 acres, while a great number have been made from vacant lots. The Linz. Bros. silver cup which was presented to the Parks and Playgrounds Committee two years ago, and which is to be awarded annually to the District achieving greatest progress in Parks and Playgrounds work, was won in 1920 by the Second District, and in 1921 by the Fifth District. We predict that great strides will be made in the work in the next few years, and that Texas can point with pride to her Parks and Playgrounds. And to this end let us urge that all earnest club women think seriously, of the recreational problems, and rest not, until you have provided ample space for leisure time activities. "Give the people a chance for innocent sport; give them a chance for fun. Better a park and a playground plot, than a court and a jail, when the harm is done. Give them a chance—if you stint them now, tomorrow you will have to pay, a larger bill, for a darker ill, so help us, Texas club women, to give them a chance to play."

MRS. J. L. YOUNG,
State Chmn. Parks and Playgrounds, T. F. W. C.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM

It was planned by the chairman of this committee that each district chairman should name a county chairman, each county chairman a city chairman, each and every one to be responsible for the work assigned her, reporting regularly to the next above, finally the full report reaching the state chairman. A thorough survey of all state, county and city institutions was to be made, and a report, and plan offered to assist conditions. It was advised that classes be formed to study such conditions, and that a campaign be waged against the re-appointment of incompetent officials. The only two districts that really made a start were the first and second districts. Letter writing from the others seemed to have been a lost art. Splendid work was done in the two above named.

We have found that civil service reform reaches into every home, city and county, but very little can be accomplished without organization, education and interest.

State Chairman.

CONSERVATION

The purpose of the Department of Conservation is to awaken an interest in the Nation's national resources, to develop an appreciative understanding of them and, when necessary, endeavor to secure legislation for intelligent conservation; that is, provide a policy for the best and fullest use without waste.

No man or woman lives who would not be benefitted by a fuller understanding of the marvels of the earth, and not only partake of their use, but of their protection and reproduction as well.

The Americanism for which we are striving must include thought and action for those who will come after us, as well as for those who are on earth today. Women are being asked to help in the mighty task of remaking civilization. The world needs their common sense, patience and thrift in straightening out the tangle.

The work of this year started out with an idea of increasing our forests. This department succeeded in planting one-half million trees. Literature on adaptation of soil and climate, and spraying formulas were sent to all districts.

Texas Senators and Representatives at Washington were written concerning the defeat of the Walsh Bill, and the support of the bill "Trifling with the Underpinning."

The Bird Protection movement met with much success. Several hundred bird houses were constructed and many bird sanctuaries were established. Approximately five hundred (500) Audobon Clubs were formed. Literature for the protection of birds, and sanctuaries were sent to all districts. Many bird programs were held by our schools April 3—Burrheads Day.

Gardening, which was entered into so earnestly the year previous, renewed its interest. There are more than three thousand supervised gardens. People all over the State show their sincerity in thrift by making home gardens.

MRS. S. M. MUNSON,
Chairman of Conservation, 1921.

FIRE PREVENTION

The club women of Texas have never yet failed to respond to a worthy call, and at this time when our records show an increased fire loss involving millions of dollars in property and thousands of lives, and when we are reminded that this loss is the result of carelessness, it is time that the call be given to the entire clubdom of the state, that we give time to plans for fighting fires before they happen.

It is the earnest desire of your chairman that each club in Texas have a fire prevention committee, that clubs in county seats form one general committee and plan to put the study of fire prevention in all schools of the county, so that by counties we cover the six districts and by the districts the entire state.

Rural Schools need the study course as well as the city schools and should have the opportunity for this training that they may be able to protect themselves and their homes.

With such a committee in every city or town an interest in fire prevention would be created that would induce city officials to appoint a fire prevention committee and with this committee and the club women co-operating, we will see results scarcely hoped for. Fire hazards will disappear, the death rate will decrease, property losses diminish and insurance rate at a minimum.

Isn't this task worth while? It can be done, with every club working and no club shirking.

MRS. J. C. BUTTS, Hillsboro,
Chairman.

GOOD ROADS

Your Chairman of Good Roads begs to report for the committee how the Club Women of Texas, with their interest and co-operation, are assisting in building more good roads in Texas this year than ever before. Another feature in connection with road building just now is that the educational part of highway development is extending its scope more and more. In a manner, "history repeats itself" in our newly bestirred zeal for constructing good highways. What to the Romans was a national necessity, has become for us an urgent need, and this by virtue of a modern invention—the motor car.

The old law of supply and demand works for a highway project as well as for any other business, and it has been proven by the experience of past years, that where a demand is created by actual travel, roads are built to accommodate it.

We recommend:

1. That we have a "Good Roads" program given in Clubs, and get women to learn more about how good roads are built.
2. That we form Ladies' Automobile Clubs to aid in the maintenance of good roads.
3. That we plant trees along our highways.
4. That we try to secure a law to prohibit the placing of advertising signs on trees on the public highways.

MRS. J. C. GEORGE, Brownsville,
Chairman.

WATERWAYS AND FORESTRY

No specific club work has been undertaken on waterways. Your chairman by appointment attended National Drainage Congress, St. Paul, Minnesota, and reports three urgent needs: Better drainage laws, a more intelligent understanding of irrigation and reclamation measures and creating public sentiment for waterways projects, all of these within our sphere of work.

Forestry has been given first place and results are gratifying. Three specific lines of work have been followed: Education, Legislation, and Practical work. Each District Chairman has not only worked but reported to State Chairman from time to time.

We have had splendid team work, our Governor says, "I am for Forestry." State President of Federation has given time and influence, the correlated Federation Committees: viz., Civic, Parks and Playgrounds, Good Roads, Fire Protection, have united on this work. Why? Texas Forestry situation is critical, and demands serious reflection. Texas within ten years will be facing a forest depletion without provision for reforestation; no laws for purchase of cut over, non agricultural lands, for State Forests, saying nothing of fire protection if we do not awake to our moral responsibility. It is with pardonable pride that I say: Forestry stands at the forefront of Federation activities. Your committee has stressed Forestry programs, Arbor Day observance, Memorial Tree Planting, Nature stories featuring the forests; to this end untold numbers of tracts, bulletins, clippings, and personal letters have been sent throughout the state. To Mr. Siecke, State Forester, this committee is deeply indebted for valuable advice and assistance, especially for "Forestry Questions and Answers"—a specially prepared bulletin for Texas Club Women. Each District Chairman reports splendid co-operation on Forestry Bill No. 231, presented to 37th Legislature.

Your Committee has endeavored to prepare a picture and history of the Historical Trees of Texas—but only a few reported. We have addressed schools, Teachers' Institutes, County Fairs, Men's Clubs, Church Societies. Have stressed tree planting.

Proclamations by Mayors throughout the state, have urged preservation of highway trees where possible. Thousands of trees are growing as result of campaign of 40,000 Texas Federated tree planters.

For your consideration, we recommend for the next two years, "National Highway Tree Planting," as specific Forestry practical work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. BEN BOYDSTUN, State Chairman.

EDUCATION

A review of the work from November, 1919, to March, 1920, was published in pamphlet form and contained the State's report to the Biennial, 1920. Fifty copies were sent to the National Chairman of Education.

At the request of the Superintendent of the State Department of Education, your chairman served as State Chairman of all federated club women in Texas and organized them in an effort to promote the passage of the "Better Schools Amendment." Your chairman devoted one week to speaking in South Texas, urging the people to vote for the Amendment. She also spoke in its interest in Brownsville, in San Antonio and before the DeWitt County Federation of Clubs at Cuero, Texas.

At the San Antonio Convention your chairman made two recommendations:

First: That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs work for the passage of a law authorizing an appropriation for making a State Survey of Education in Texas.

Second. That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs endorse and work for the creation of a State Tax Commission.

From 1920 to 1921 the special work of the chairman of education has been to stress the importance of the Sterling-Towner Bill (Smith-Towner Bill of last Congress). She has written letters to each of the seven members of the Congressional Committee on reorganization of the Bill, urging their support of the Bill and has demanded for the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs that we have a Federal Department of Education.

The National Federation movement for "pure English" under the name of "Better Speech Week" was endorsed by this Committee and an excellent response from the State was had through the co-operation of the newspapers, the clubs and the schools. The District Chairmen of Education rendered valuable assistance to the work.

Your chairman has assisted in all efforts looking to the enactment of legislation embodying the furtherance of our educational interests. The Superintendent of the State Department of Education and your chairman have established and maintained a close relationship which has brought definite results in bettering Education in Texas.

Mrs. Alex Spence of Dallas, Texas, is the chairman of a special committee on scholarships.

In closing this report we urge every club woman in Texas to co-operate with her local authorities in their plans for the observance of National Education Week so that the people of every community may become aroused to the vital educational needs of the Nation.

MRS. LEE JOSEPH, Chairman.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Committee on Scholarships, as appointed by the Chair in the fall of 1920, was given the task of revising the list of scholarships as it appeared in the 1919-20 Year Book and the awarding of those scholarships obtained. The unrevised list consisted of fifty-nine scholarships from thirty-eight schools. Twenty-three of the fifty-nine were music scholarships and twenty-six literary. Letters were written to the College Presidents asking for a renewal of the scholarships. As a result of these letters twenty scholarships were obtained from thirteen different schools, six of the requests having been refused. Mimeographed copies of these scholarships were made and sent out to thirty-six newspapers over the State.

The letters asking for the scholarships revealed that the Federation was not in particularly good standing in some of the schools, either because of a lack of interest in the scholarship or because of the poor quality of work done by the appointee to the scholarship. The Committee, after careful consideration, decided to put forth every effort to make the qualifications such as to safeguard the college giving the scholarship and the Federation, while not working a hardship on the applicant. With this in mind the following qualifications were made:

1. Assurance that the scholarship is needed.
2. A copy of the record in school for the last year or last few years.
3. A doctor's certificate of good health.
4. Signing of the official application blank of the Federation.

For some of the scholarships the Federation District President's approval was required. In each case the papers received were forwarded to the president of the college donating the scholarship and his approval obtained before the scholarship was awarded.

There were twenty inquiries regarding these scholarships, ten of which were followed up and resulted in appointments. Five of these appointments were recommended and handled by the Sixth District. One application was refused on the advice of the college president. Those receiving scholarships are:

1. Irene Saathoff, Hondo, Texas—Southwestern University.
2. Elizabeth Jackson, Dallas, Texas—Metropolitan Business College.
3. Haydn Bowman, Dallas, Texas—Terrill School.
4. Willmath Wharton, Edna, Texas—C. I. A.
5. Eleanor Norton, Fort Worth, Texas—Texas Woman's College.
6. J. B. Lucius, Teague, Texas—Midland College.

7. Ellen Osborne, Abilene, Texas—Abilene Christian College.
8. Mary Lynn Sides, Abilene, Texas—Simmons College.
9. Tylen McMahon, Brownwood, Texas—Howard Payne College.
10. Bessie Freeland, Turnersville, Texas—Daniel Baker College.

Upon the award of each scholarship the school in which the scholarship was given was asked to send to the Committee on Scholarships the term report of the grade made by the Federation appointee. One report has been received.

As a result of the last year's experience, the Committee on Scholarships is convinced that there is no greater service that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs could give than that of making possible a college education for more of our young men and women. In order that this service may be most efficient and render the greatest possible aid, the Committee would like to recommend the following:

1. That an effort be made to obtain, either from individuals or schools, scholarships that will be of more material aid than those now listed.

2. That the qualifications for scholarships be revised and standardized, and new application blanks be printed.

3. That the authority in the awarding of scholarships be centralized in one committee, which committee in turn will assume all responsibility in regard to them.

4. That the Federation feel a greater responsibility for its appointees, and that its committee keep in close touch with them, and informed of the character of work that they are doing.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. ALEC W. SPENCE, Chairman.

HISTORY

The chief work of this Committee during the last two years has been the continuance of research and other work incident to the preparation for the press of Volume I of "Texas: Historical, Traditional, Legendary."

I would first report personal visits to historical points of interest, foremost among them that of La-Salle's old fort and of Espiritu Santo Mission, which make possible a first-hand description of a doubly-distinguished but totally neglected site.

Good use seems to have been made by the Chairman of the monographic material turned out by specialists in archaeological research during the last fifteen years.

Volume I consists of Part I, The El Paso District; Part II, The Border Counties, and Part III, The District of Bexar. Of the first two Dr. Bolton writes: "These are the portions of Texas whose history is most in the dark."

A method employed to secure authentic data has been interviews with those whose knowledge or experience will add materially to the value of such work.

In spite of many unavoidable interruptions delaying this work from time to time, should present concentration of efforts continue the manuscript for Volume I will be ready for the press within the next few months.

The first edition of "San Antonio de Bexar: Historical, Traditional, Legendary" brought out by your chairman in 1916, is almost exhausted. Some of the clubs are studying it as an Epitome of Early Texas History.

This constitutes my final report as Chairman of History Committee, the recent organization plan of our Federation work automatically eliminating this Committee. But feeling that our State's history is too important and sacred to be dropped from our Club's courses of study, I will state that Clubs will find me ready at any time, as heretofore, to render any assistance possible in this line.

MRS. S. J. WRIGHT, Chairman,
San Antonio, Texas.

HUMANE.

With optimistic hearts we catch the notes of service, and with gratefulness note the progress in many directions in civilization—yet it is a fact to be deplored that there has not been the rapid advance in humane consideration for human beings and beasts—notwithstanding the earnest work of the humane organizations there is much need of prosecution for cruel deeds, and for rescue and shelter for victims. The point urged by prominent humane workers of our nation I now make the vital part of my appeal to you women of Texas—that is, the systematic teaching of kindness during the entire school life of the young. Wonderful transformations have been wrought in thoughtless brutal boys by humane teaching and appeal to their sympathies. Eminent educators testify to the value of intelligent humane instruction. Every federated club is urged to stimulate interest in its community for better conditions in our rural schools and to provide for humane appeal in the school room and in the home.

MRS. G. R. SCOTT, Chairman.

HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK

The Home Demonstration chairman wrote to six District Presidents, and asked that a District Home Demonstration chairman be appointed in each district. Three district chairmen have been very active and efficient. No County chairmen were appointed in the counties where there was a Demonstration Agent, or Home Economic chairman, as it was thought the work might be confusing.

A letter was sent to each District President, explaining the relation of the General Federation and State Federation to the work, and summing up the plan of the State chairman under two heads:

First: To increase the available number of Home Demonstration agents.

Second: To support legislation and appropriation, both State and County, that will insure adequate support of this work.

The University, and College of Industrial Art both give courses especially adapted to the preparation of Home Demonstration agents, and through the influence of your chairman and the State Demonstration agent the regular Home Economics courses of the two Junior A. & M. colleges have been arranged in order to relate them more directly to the needs of rural and small town homes, and Home Demonstration work.

So, it would seem there is ample educational facilities for getting the necessary training. There is a wide, general interest in the work among club women in Texas. In 14 counties, federated clubs helped in reaching public sentiment, personally interviewed numbers of the Commissioners' Courts, and secured valuable information that resulted in appropriations being made. Club women in one county paid a representative to do campaign work for a Home Demonstration agent.

Recommendation: That the scholarships at Grubbs and John Tarlton and two of those from C. I. A. be given on condition that the young women receiving the benefit of these—promise to serve at

SOCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS

The work of this Department has been carried on by two Divisions, viz., the Industrial and Business Relations and Institutional Relations Committees. Recently a committee was appointed to investigate the relation of the Federation to the negro problem, and their report is also given.

Industrial and Business Relations.

Your Chairman regrets to say that since making her last report, two of the best pieces of legislation fostered by the State Federation of Clubs, have lapsed, and our splendid work for women and children in industry must be done all over again. Our State is now entirely without a Minimum Wage Law and the Women's Division of Labor at Austin has practically ceased to function. Your Chairman has repeatedly urged the club women to study the laws of Texas that directly bear on the working conditions of women and children, and in conjunction with Mrs. Lena Gardner, the last incumbent of the Women's Bureau, an attractive program on this subject was prepared and sent out to the clubs. This program was multigraphed and mailed out from the State Department of Labor.

Last spring Miss Clara Bixby of Dallas was appointed Chairman of Industrial and Business Relations. Miss Bixby outlined a splendid plan of study and urged the District Presidents to establish three study groups in each of their Districts. One suggestion of hers must be repeated here. "The Federation of Women's Clubs in Texas will find that everywhere men and women in business will be ready and glad to give information, to make talks, or to render assistance of any kind toward a better understanding, and a greater improvement of the relations between the employer and the employee."

The fatal illness of Miss Bixby in August has deprived this Department of a most intelligent and earnest co-worker, and in her death the Federation of Clubs has sustained a loss.

Institutional Relations.

Your Chairman wishes that the space allotted her was sufficiently large in which to tell the many interesting features of the prison situation in Texas and our connection with it. At the Board Meeting following the Federation Convention in San Antonio it was decided by the members present to unite with a committee from the Texas Congress of Mothers and the League of Women Voters in raising money to pay for a scientific survey of prison conditions in Texas and then to urge our Governor and Legislators to accept this survey and its recommendations. We found that the National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor had collected the best thought and experience of all times and all places on this subject and was the best equipped agency to render us this service as it had done and was doing to other and older States. We were tired of the many costly and unprofitable exposures made by previous Legislative Committees and wanted a new system that would be constructive, up-to-date, and adapted to our local conditions. Your Chairman was authorized by these three Organizations to raise the $5,000.00 necessary for such a survey and had succeeded in getting half of it pledged when the publication of accounts of acts of unusual cruelty to prisoners aroused the Legislature to definite action and a committee was appointed from that body to make an investigation. Your Committee tried to have a survey made instead of an investigation. We succeeded only in getting an assurance from the Legislative Investigating Committee that if they found such a survey necessary it would be done at the expense of the State of Texas. We took their advice and patiently awaited the result of the investigation, not neglecting in the meantime to send this Committee and other members of the Legislature all the material available on the subject of up-to-date prison systems. In this work we had the co-operation of Miss Jaffray, Secretary of the National Committee on Prisons. The findings of this Committee more than confirmed all the criticisms against the past and present managements, and more than justified our demand for a scientific survey. The Investigating Committee, however, did not recommend this survey. Two of the recommendations of this Committee have now become the law, viz., the re-location of the entire prison plant near Austin and the appointment of a Supervisory Prison Committee, composed of two men and one woman, who will visit the prisons at the expense of this State. We feel that the appointment of a woman on this Committee is a great step forward in progressive legislation. Your Chairman was actively on the job during the summer months, made several visits to Austin, and sent many letters and telegrams, urging the club members and officers who were in the State to express their wishes in these matters to the Legislator in session at Austin. There was a splendid response. As it is proposed to move the entire plant near Austin, we therefore think it is a propitious time to again urge the necessity of expert and scientific advice from experienced sources in order to crystallize and formulate a new plan of prison management that will bring the prison system of Texas up to the highest point of business efficiency, and at the same time give a square deal to the prisoners of the State.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. H. F. RING, Chairman,
Social and Industrial Relations,
State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Committee Appointed to Investigate the Relation of the Federation to the Negro Problem and to Suggest a General Plan By Which the Federation Might Be Of Aid.

The members of the committee were asked to gather information from sources related to the work of their respective departments. This was done and the information reported to the committee.

There are two possible ways by which the Federation may relate itself to the negro work; one through a state-wide program and committee to carry it out and the other through local programs made and carried out through local clubs.

The committee would recommend that for the present the local plan be used and the experience gained will enable the Federation to plan at some future time a more satisfactory state-wide program than is possible at this time.

Local clubs could advise with state and district chairmen as to plans and programs for negro civic and educational organizations and activities in definite localities. Local clubs should be asked and urged to report work done for the negroes of the community, its character and the results obtained, to the District and State Chairman* especially chairmen of Civics, Education, Home Economics, Industrial and Social Relations and Library Extension. From these reports could be compiled data for the formulating eventually of a state-wide program.

Wherever the conditions make it practicable local clubs should aid the negroes in improving schools and living conditions in their homes; in establishing parks, playgrounds and libraries; also hospitals and health centers. Some method of standardizing labor and opening up employment agencies might be included in this list. Local clubs can be most helpful in co-operating with the Extension Service of the A. & M. College and of the University and make it possible for these institutions to serve the negro population as well as the white. The same could be done with the State Departments.

Every such activity should be reported in detail to the Department chairman most directly related to it so that the data may be compiled for references.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. MAGGIE W. BARRY,
Chairman.

RURAL LIFE

In beginning my report as Chairman of the Rural Life Committee, I wish first to say that the Rural Development idea first originated with the Federation in 1905, Mrs. E. P. Turner, president, when the Club Extension Committee in its report asked the question—"How have you gone about forming an alliance between the two great powers, the Town Woman and the Country Woman?", and the recommendation was made that each Town Club should have a Club Extension Committee which should help in the organization of Rural Clubs.

Mrs. Cone Johnson in her address as president, 1907, said—"The work of the Texas Federation is greatly educational. This work will not accomplish its true mission until the country home spans village and towns to join with the city home. And my chief thought has been the extension of Club Organization in the village and rural community. When the country woman comes to realize that the club reaches her home and her children, and that through it comes social, civic and intellectual uplift of the community, who can doubt that her heart will respond to this call? There is pressing need for an improved country school house and for a longer term. Through this we may arouse interest for woman's work in the country."

And on through the Federation's Administrations we have seen the need of getting in touch with the rural or precinct women.

The Precinct Year Book which was presented at our last years' annual meeting is a concrete program for the development of this work. This program was compiled from ideas and suggestions obtained from the National Department of Welfare at Washington, from the Extension Department of our State Universities and Schools, Practical Experiences of Home Demonstration Agents and from other sources interested in the Rural Development and Back to the Farm Movement, and was planned to cover the different departments of the Federation.

This concrete program is now being used in 60 counties of the State and in several other States, and has been sent to almost every State in the Union upon request.

At the beginning of my term I first distributed 10,000 Plans of Organization bulletins, 10,000 Survey cards, 250 Saturday Nights, with the Plan of Organization therein.

A committee was appointed by Mrs. Floore, our President, to let contract for printing of the Concrete Program, and on the 18th day of December, 1920, this Committee, consisting of Mrs. Floore, Miss Anna Shelton, Mrs. Maggie W. Barry and myself, contract was let for 4000 to H. C. Bush on a percentage basis of a portion of the receipts from the advertisements therein, and the printing of the said 4000 programs which netted to us the sum of $841.84.

I recommend that in making up the next year's program, that in as much as there are nine months work in the Federation, and nine departments of the Federation, the Chairman of each Department prepare one month's program for the Precinct Year Book, which shall become the Concrete Program. The Chairman of each Department is better acquainted with the work which its department is undertaking, and can better make the program to be carried out. In this way we can impress not only on our Precinct Women, but our Club Women, each and every one of you, the great work this Federation is doing.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. W. C. MARTIN, Chairman.

LEGISLATIVE

In the early part of January, 1921, Mrs. Floore asked me to take the Chairmanship of the Legislative Committee, only my loyalty to the Federation and friendship for Mrs. Floore made me accept same.

At San Antonio you will remember that a Joint Legislative Committee was entered into, with the Woman's Voters League and the Mother's Congress, which was to be composed of the Presidents of the three organizations, and the Chairmen of the respective Legislative Committees.

I attended the meeting called by this Joint Committee Chairman in Austin, and, having no time to lose, we immediately went to work on the Substitute Bills for the Minimum Wage Law, then on the Statute Books of the State.

This law, as it stood, was entirely too drastic for practical service, and we therefore, encouraged the Substitute Bills, namely: "H. B. No. 161," known as the Barry Miller Bill, and the "Senate Bill No. 46," known as the Murphy Bill. These bills were not just what we would have had them, but after several bills had been chopped up into unrecognizable slices, and passed respectively by House and Senate, the Governor vetoed them, thus annulling also the original Minimum Wage Law, and now we are right where we started.

The Joint Committee also worked for the Rural School Appropriations, the compulsory teaching of English, and the Bills which would have given schools to delinquent women and girls. The Rural Aid Bill was passed, and finally signed by the Governor.

In August we tried to influence the Governor to sign the two Prison Bills. One he vetoed, and I have among my exhibits his reasons, as per his letter to Secretary of State, for so doing.

My letters to District Chairman have been answered by three.

I have submitted to the Finance Committee the expenses from January, 1921, to date, which I have made as light as possible.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. FRED B. ROBINSON,
Chairman.

LITERATURE

The first step of the Literature Committee was to issue an open letter requesting the clubs to direct some portion of their literary programs to the pressing domestic and industrial questions, that by diligent study and reciprocal discussion we might apply the knowledge gained to the solution of concrete problems in our every day life.

To this end the Clubs were asked to include in their work the study of Thrift, Citizenship and Americanization, and were shown wherein these questions could be correlated with strictly cultural subjects.

The chairman, recognizing the need of instruction in Citizenship, appealed to Prof. J. F. McDonald, lecturer on Citizenship of A. & M. College, and he prepared a comprehensive course of five lessons on this much needed subject. The lessons were mailed to over two thousand women, helping them to vote intelligently in the past election.

A Lecture Bureau has been organized with an enrollment of seventeen women, whose subjects cover most every phase of Federation endeavor.

The Committee has prepared special programs on Americanization, Tercentenary of the Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers, Texas Founders Day, Armistice Day and Federation Day.

The special work of the committee has been to assist clubs in the preparation of their courses of study. One hundred and twelve clubs have been given assistance.

One hundred and fifty year books have been received. The books give valuable help to others and are needed in the reciprocity work. Stress has been laid upon the contests in original composition, with the view of promoting more original work in the club.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. M. HETTY CURRY, Chairman.

LIBRARY EXTENSION COMMITTEE

The efforts of your Committee have been directed toward creating a sentiment throughout the State for County Libraries. We have met with unusually gratifying results. The District Chairmen have been efficient in their work. They have appointed County Chairmen in their Districts; sent circulars, cards, suggestive library programs to each Club in their District, and articles for publication to the various newspapers.

The results follow:

COUNTY LIBRARIES: The first County Library was established in Dallam County and given the 1000 volumes free by the Texas Library Commission. Second, Cooke County, then Potter and Harris. Tarrant County has voted a County Library, however has received no support from Commissioners' Court because their budget was already made up, but will do so the coming year.

SUBSCRIPTION LIBRARIES: Stephenville, Giddings, San Benito, Gorman and Dublin.

RURAL LIBRARIES Ten in Bastrop County. Three public libraries in Independent School Districts.

TRAVELING LIBRARIES: Three in Navasota.

LIBRARIES RE-OPENED: Corpus Christi and McAllen.

Interest towards County Libraries in Wichita, Hidalgo, Baylor and Denton Counties.

Renewed efforts to establish city libraries at Temple, Conroe and Center.

College Station gave six hundred books to the Consolidated School on grounds.

Have given publicity to the observance of Children's Book Week, as planned by the Chairman of General Federation Library Extension Committee.

The interest shown in this work throughout the State is very gratifying and the greatest interest is shown in the Rio Grande Valley.

I believe, we may look for still greater results during the coming term.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. B. HONEYCUTT,
Chairman.

To Women Citizens:

Don't forget that men, when called upon, have laid down their lives for their country's good. Now it is up to us, the women of all countries that have the vote, to lay aside our apathy, prejudices and above all, our narrowness and accept the great and glorious responsibility that lies before us to help, not only our country but all countries. The world needs us. A man-ordered world has failed. Let us see to it that what we call Christian Civilization is more than a name. We should go into all countries and preach this ideal—men and women working together for real peace on earth.

LADY NANCY ASTOR.

PUBLIC HEALTH

It has been the policy of this Department to follow, as far as it meets State conditions, the program of the Public Health Department of the General Federation.

To avoid waste of time and effort, the Committees policy has been rather to give co-operation to health agencies already in the field than to inaugurate new ones. In pursuance of this plan, the following National and State Organizations have received active support from the Department:

1. Red Cross—in placing county health nurses.
2. The Anti-Tuberculosis Society—in its campaign against the disease and in raising funds with which to combat it.
3. The State Department of Health—in its effort to establish full time county health officers and stronger county health departments.
4. State Bureau of Child Hygiene—in securing county health nurses.
5. Public Health Association—in its campaign against tuberculosis.
6. The University of Texas in holding Child Health and Nutrition Conferences in all parts of the State.
7. The A. & M. College, in its campaign for rat extermination.

8. The Association for Nursing Education, in its effort to secure recruits for the profession.

In addition, special programs for health days or weeks have been prepared by the Chairman, on request, and many hundred leaflets and bulletins on different phases of health circulated.

Local clubs, in various parts of the State have, under the direction of District Chairman, undertaken specific health problems for the betterment of the community.

Plans for closer co-ordination of work and for a definite piece of work to be initiated by the Federation are now under consideration by your Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. MARY E. GEARING, Chairman.

AMERICANIZATION

The Americanization Committee has followed the plan of work as outlined in the Resolution presented and unanimously adopted at the first board meeting: "To ask all departments to concentrate on Americanization." Soon after the meeting, a letter from the Americanization chairman was mailed to each State chairman, asking if Americanization was included in her program. The replies received gave outline of work planned, and in each Americanization was emphasized. To further co-operate with study clubs, this committee arranged special Americanization programs, which were widely used in every District. Each district chairman was asked to appoint a committee of Club women, in every county seat in her district, to be present at all naturalization ceremonies. The work of this committee has largely been through co-operation with each department, and we expect the results of our efforts to make better Americans of our native as well as foreign born.

MRS. E. C. HUNTER,
State Chairman Americanization Committee.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE

The Peace Committee has sent out hundreds of pieces of literature; urged schools and clubs to have Peace programs and held two Peace Conferences—one during the annual convention in San Antonio and the other during the annual convention in Fort Worth.

CITIZENSHIP DAY REPORT

Texas Federation Women's Clubs.

At the Executive Board Meeting in April this special committee was created. Immediately following, upon the request of Mrs. Pennybacker, Chairman American Citizenship Department General Federation Women's Clubs, many personal letters were written to different Texas cities asking if they would not celebrate May thirty-first as Citizenship Day. They were asked to secure an article and picture of their celebration and send them to Mrs. Anna Steese Richardson of the Citizenship Department for the "Woman's Home Companion." Thus creating interest for the observance of July Fourth as Citizenship Day throughout the United States.

Several articles were sent to the Press in order to gain as much publicity as possible for this new movement. An explanatory circular letter was written, and with a Citizenship Day leaflet by Mrs. Pennybacker, was sent to each town in Texas stressing the import and importance of observing July Fourth as Citizenship Day.

While many other Texas towns did, we know, celebrate, yet only a report was received from the following:

San Antonio—On May thirty-first a Citizenship Day program was given at the luncheon session of the Anglo-American Club. Two honorary members were elected to membership—Sir Auckland Geddes, the English Ambassador to the United States, and Major General James G. Harbord, Assistant Chief of Staff of the United States Army. In a letter Sir Geddes plead for the unity of the two English-speaking races, and also urged that the people of the United States be ever mindful of the insidious and vicious propaganda which is being spread to disrupt the harmony and good-will of the two races.

Dallas—The Woman's Good Citizenship Association met July fourth at the Jefferson Hotel for a patriotic meeting and luncheon. Mrs. E. P. Turner, president, presided. Patriotic songs were sung and speeches made.

Ft. Worth—The City Federation of Women's Clubs, with Mrs. R. P. Robbins, as chairman, staged an elaborate all-day patriotic exercise on July Fourth. Thousands thronged the streets in the morning to witness the big parade in which more than one thousand people participated, and thirty attractive floats exhibited. First prize was awarded to the "Allied Float," sponsored by the Sorosis Club; second prize went to "Texas Under Two Flags" placed by Rakes and Company. The artistic decorations of each float rendered it almost impossible for the judges to decide the winners.

After the parade the crowd repaired to Trinity Park where hundreds of families spread and enjoyed an old-fashioned basket dinner. Then followed a patriotic service with a Community Sing.

Waco—The City Federation of Women's Clubs sponsored a most successful Citizenship Day program. In the parade were floats representing many literary clubs, patriotic associations, business firms; the Greeks, Mexicans, Chinese, Norwegians and Swedes were also represented. A patriotic service was rendered at beautiful Camron Park.

Corpus Christi—On Sunday, July third, Mrs. G. R. Scott had charge of an Americanization exercise. The principal address on "Citizenship" was by Senor Cavasas, Mexican Consul, interpreter — Fabius Brooks. There was the recognition of new citizens and recitation of "The American's Creed." Prizes were awarded for the best definition of "Americanism" and "Americanism vs. Bolshevism." Sacred and patriotic music was rendered.

Belton—In commemoration of the Centennial of American civilization in Texas a conference was held at Baylor College, Belton. On July Fourth a Citizenship Day program was given.

Hillsboro—Possibly one thousand or more people attended the Americanization program sponsored by the Monday Review and Rotary Clubs on the lawn of the First Methodist Church. The band that furnished the music was made up of many talented young people, among the number being many from other lands, but who are now loyal Americans. The patriotic speech of Mr. Dupree was followed by the pageant who portrayed the coming to America of those of various nations and flags, their surrender to Columbia of the flags of the mother country, and receiving from her the flag of America. The ladies were beautifully costumed to represent the nations. The pageant was original both in its staging and speaking parts by the Monday Review Club. The literature chairman of the General Federation has asked that this pageant be copyrighted.

Bowie—Citizenship Day was celebrated with a very impressive program under the auspices of the Thursday Book and Maids and Matrons Clubs. The Mayor delivered a speech and administered the Oath of Allegiance and American's Creed. Patriotic songs were sung.

Crowell—A delightful patriotic service was rendered on the beautiful court house lawn. The program consisted of songs, readings, and the wedding of Uncle Sam and Columbia. Following the wedding the bride's maids gave a pleasing pantomime of "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean." The program closed by singing "The Star Spangled Banner," after Mrs. Mark Henry had given a sketch of author.

Haskell—For July Fourth the beautiful court house lawn had been decorated with U. S. flags which gave a thrill to every true American heart. Patriotic songs and readings were rendered. Judge Murchison delivered the principal address. "The hope of our country," he said, "is in our young womanhood," whom he adjured to hold steadfastly up the standards of purity, applying ever their hands to the deeds of mercy, and the directing of their minds to the establishment of homes from which the cheap and tawdry are banished, and upon which a great civilization may rest.

MRS. JAMES UPTON FIELDS,
Chairman.

MOTION PICTURE SURVEY

If you were asked what is the most popular indoor amusement of today I am sure the reply would be the Movies, for they are the most wonderful invention of modern times.

They are here to stay, but we must make their stay beneficial by introducing them into the school, and church work where people can see what is greatest and best in an interesting world.

Lewdness, vulgarity, and indecency on the screen must go.

Club women are awake to the importance of securing better and cleaner pictures for their towns, and a few of the Film Companies are willing to cooperate with us.

During the past two years your committee has worked untiringly to create public sentiment in favor of Visual Instruction in our public schools with splendid results.

We undoubtedly learn more through the sense of sight than through any other avenue, and think the time is near at hand when visual instruction as a supplement to the text book will be used in all schools. The quickest way to teach a difficult subject is to exhibit a film dealing with it.

Both the State University and A. & M. College have added a department of Visual Education where films and slides can be obtained for cost of carriage.

A few of our public schools are using educational films in class rooms.

Many of our Texas cities have free Movies in parks during the summer months. The purpose is two-fold, to present wholesome amusement films in pleasant open-air environments, and to teach health habits by means of striking films.

One of the vital questions of today is the regulation of Motion Pictures. But by whom? How? With what results?

The chairman of Motion Picture Committee of General Federation of Women's Clubs goes straight to the point in urging co-operative community effort in which the theater manager takes part.

The only way to raise the average of public taste, is by beginning in the community.

MRS. J. L. LOVEJOY,
State Chmn. Motion Picture Com., T. F. W. C.

REPORT OF PARLIAMENTARIAN

To the Board of Directors:

Madam Chairman: As State Parliamentarian, I attended the annual meeting of the Federation in San Antonio last November, presided over an afternoon conference, closing the conference with a talk on Parliamentary Forms and Procedure, which every woman must know, and which is indispensable to her as a thinking club woman. In the Spring I attended four of the District meetings, upon the invitation of the District Program Committee, talked on each of these programs on Atmosphere—How to create it—How to destroy it. This is my hobby.

The President has not needed a Parliamentarian. But the interest of club women over the State wanting to know Parliamentary Procedure, the right thing to do, the right time to do it, and to know to do it right, has been overwhelming. The beginning of Women's Clubs was the recognition of a group of women of the power of knowledge. It is not until the last two years that the club women of Texas have realized the power a knowledge of Parliamenture rules and forms of procedure in organized effort.

The women of our Federation are realizing this as never before, and in this realization turn frankly to the right preparation, a study of the science, real science, which teaches how to get the most out of organized effort and the essence of deliberative sessions such as this. There is a general interest in clubs over the State in having well constructed constitutions. The Parliamentarian has sent out four models of a good constitution, helped revise 9, and two for City Federations.

Expenses as Parliamentarian for last year, $78.21.

In a recent fashionable magazine much read by women were ten commandments on Beauty Procedure.

I should like to give ten commandments on club procedure, but am reminded that time and space forbid.

MRS. E. L. BUCHANAN,
State Parliamentarian, T. F. W. C.,
Fort Worth, Texas.

REPORT OF THE HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT.

The Department has given active support to the Fess bill, co-operated with the extension service of the University and A. & M. College in weighing and measuring children, holding Home Economics short courses and budget classes. Demonstrations in home-making and lectures from the University, A. & M. and C. I. A. have been heard by many individual clubs and through them by community groups.

The greatest need in Texas is for a wider distribution of opportunity for home-making information and a more active interest among women in taking advantage of such opportunities.

The clubs are urged to embody in their programs one or all of the three activities suggested by the General Federation Division.

1. A County Rural Life Club or Federation in each county.

2. A course in Home Economics or Home-making in at least one additional rural and urban school in the county.

3. A county Home Demonstration agent in each agricultural county.

Clubs are also asked to continue support of the clothing contests instituted by the Vocational Home Economics division of the State Department of Education and by the extension service of the A. & M. College. Detailed information can be obtained from Miss Lillian Peak, State Dept. of Education, Austin, and Mrs. Dora Barnes, College Station.

Helpful bulletins and speakers may be secured from the Home Economics Dept., University of Texas, Austin; Extension Division, A. & M. College Station, and College of Industrial Arts, Denton. All of these schools furnish also study programs for club women.

LILLIAN P. ROBBINS,
Chm. Dept. Home Economics.

CIVIC ART

The work of the Civic Art Department has necessarily been in its widest sense preparation for the future by means of education of our public sentiment, and taste, and appreciation of the influences of beauty in our communities as a whole.

Ever mindful of the need of the practical application of this understanding of beauty to the uses of the people, so that restlessness and depression which are aggravated by ugliness may be translated through beauty of environment to those forces which make for "happy, hopeful, ambitious, active citizens," messages urging that such education which is so related to good citizenship have gone forth through the press to the clubs of the state; also programs suggestive of procedure of work. The following outline for Civic Art is the forerunner sent out of the programs of work submitted to the District Chairmen and their co-workers:

1. The organization in all the towns and communities of Texas of a more general understanding of and enthusiasm for all things pertaining to Civic Art, and its relationship to good citizenship.

2. The creation of an appreciation of the great need in Texas of a State Art Commission and Municipal Art Commissions.

3. The creation in every community of a tendency to postpone any definite steps towards the placing of any memorials or statues until such time as an Art Commission shall pass upon any plans or designs for such memorial or statue.

4. The further organization of agencies for Civic beautification.

5. The urge of City planning.

6. Suggestions for a School Civic Art League in each community to promote the understanding and appreciation of all things pertaining to Civic Art in the Youth of the State, thus creating an influence on the Civic Art of the future.

MRS. A. H. ABERNATHY,
Chairman of Civic Art.

THRIFT

Madam President and members of the Federation:

This report covers a period of two years and is a continuation of the plan outlined by your chairman in 1920.

During the service of this committee reports have been received from the six District Chairmen setting forth the constructive Thrift work accomplished in their respective districts as follows:

Thrift Essay Contests held in schools with Thrift Stamps for prizes.

Established Thrift Government School Banks.

Organized Poultry Raising Clubs.

Three Thrift Style Shows given at two district and one state meetings.

Instrumental in having ministers preach sermons on Thrift.

Thrift Speakers provided for Rural Schools and for Teachers Institutes.

Thrift Speakers provided for State and District Meetings.

Own your own Home Campaign launched.

Created much interest in the Budget System.

Distributed Thrift Literature for the Home, Church, School and Public Libraries.

Have written regularly to the State President, Mss. Floore, to the District and General Federation Thrift Chairmen keeping them informed as to the progress of the work.

Co-operated with the State Supt. Public Instruction in the Campaign for Thrift Education.

In studying the needs of this department it develops that Thrift means carefully and intelligently weighing all that goes into the satisfaction of life. Without Thrift no man ever achieved success, nor has any nation become great.

MRS. W. R. POTTER, Bowie,
State Chairman.

REPORT OF RE-DISTRICTING COMMITTEE

In the work of re-districting the committee carefully considered the following questions, which pertain to the life of a club district:

Number of club members.

Number of club towns.

Number of organized counties.

Number of unorganized counties.

Per cent of counties that may be organized into County Federations.

Number of towns having no Federated Clubs, and the future possibility for organization.

Smaller territories may be more intensely worked by the District President.

Great distances make more difficult the development of club work.

Bringing the opportunity to entertain the District Convention within the reach of the smaller town.

The extent of re-districting that would at this time result in the greatest advantage to the Federation.

The Committee realizes that it is only a question of a few years until Texas will demand twelve districts; for we have no right to withhold from the woman who lives in the most remote part of our state the opportunity to come in touch with the aims and ideals of the Federated Club. While admitting this to be true, your Committee also realizes that it is not wise to be too radical.

Inasmuch as the Federation's schedule may include a continuation of re-districting, it was decided to follow the example of the last re-districting Committee and recommend that but one district be created from the First District. The club towns have been distributed between the First District and the Seventh (or new) District as follows:

First District—Albany, Arlington, Archer City, Aspermont, Anson, Bellevue, Bowie, Fort Worth, Graham, Hamlin, Haskell, Henrietta, Jermyn, Margaret, Mineral Wells, New Castle, Olney, Seymour, Stamford, Stephenville, Throckmorton, Weatherford, Wichita Falls, Breckenridge, Springtown, Dundee, Goree, Decatur, Dublin, Iowa Park, Jacksboro, Munday, Rotan.

The members who were asked to serve on this Committee are as follows:

Mrs. Mark Henry—Pres. 1st District.
Mrs. J. E. Leigh—Pres. 2nd District.
Mrs. C. A. Atkins—Pres. 3rd District.
Mrs. J. C. Nagle—Pres. 4th District.

Mrs. E. S. Noble—Pres. 6th District.
Mrs. G. R. Scott—Corpus Christi.
Mrs. R. E. Buchanan—Fort Worth.
Mrs. G. T. Vineyard—Amarillo.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. R. POTTER,

The above plan transfers four special Committees to Departments, thus giving the Chairman a vote on the Board according to the new constitution. The special Committee on Parliamentary Law is cut out because the new constitution creates in State and Districts the office of Parliamentarian. Printing becomes a division of a Department and sub-divisions is cut down but the constitutional privilege of re-instituting them or creating new ones is not interfered with. The suggestion was also made that instead of always creating a new committee for special work, one of the six district Chairmen of the Department or Division be designated as a special representation to have charge of that work until it is determined to embody the new work in the permanent program.

MAGGIE W. BARRY, Chairman.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF FIRST DISTRICT— 1919-21

The slogan of the First District for the past two years has been, "No neglect of any department of the federation machinery." The first few months of the administration were spent in re-adjustment of the affairs to a normal condition again. The world war had taught our women a wonderful lesson of co-operation and team work and we found that greater results could be accomplished in much less time. Splendid community houses, drinking fountains, parks, and boulevards were beautified and built as memorials to our living soldiers as well as the dead.

The possibilities of our great District have been large in civic planning and our women were alive to the situation, rest rooms have been built, bill boards torn down, trees planted. There have been established thrift banks in several towns under the auspices of our members. There have been very few clubs that did not live up to the Motto, "Our town more healthful and beautiful." Wichita Falls has done such splendid organization work in their civic league. Boys and girls have been taught to conserve their pennies and mothers have been trained in made-over clothes contests. Our District Meeting had an interesting thrift session.

Libraries have been established and maintained and many of them have been entirely under the supervision of the club women. Stephenville has a wonderful library and is making great plans for the future. Graham, Plainview, and many other towns are interested in library work. It is the club women that are bringing before their counties the law concerning county libraries and every club woman should study this law and aid in every way possible her county officers to create interest in this matter.

Hospital work has been fostered, rooms furnished and comforts provided by our women. Mineral Wells gives us a wonderful report along sanitary lines. They have proven themselves strong factors in many towns in securing and aiding better sanitary laws. Fire prevention and clean-up campaigns have been carried on in many places. Public health has received much attention. Intensive and effective work has been done in this department; eight counties and fifteen towns have been organized during the past two months, many schools have been given medical examinations, and better baby contests encouraged.

Art has made rapid strides and there is a general awakening all over the district to the importance of art. Many of our clubs have made it a special study and art exhibits for children as well as club women have been exhibited and studied. Music clubs have been organized and they have proven a wonderful asset in securing community singing. We are especially glad to have them join our ranks. Our women as well as men have encouraged good roads. County demonstration work has been increased under the influence of our home economics work. Girls welfare committees have encouraged uniform dress for school girls, and have aided the clothing contents conducted by our state schools.

Notwithstanding that much time has been given to serving others we have not neglected our educational work. Our literary standard has increased which had fallen to a low ebb during the war. Citizenship classes and modern topics have formed a nucleus for interesting programs, several of our large clubs are planning new club houses for the near future. Instructive programs in Civil Service have been sent each club and the District Chairman has asked that they be included in the years study. Rural clubs have grown and many have been organized and county federations brought into existence and the importance of this department stressed.

Our Extension Committee has not been idle. Clubs have been invited and encouraged all over the District to be a member of the "Texas Federation of Women's Clubs."

Amarillo and Wichita Falls entertained the district meetings in a most royal and hospitable manner. We are closing the administration by using the past experiences as a foundation for greater plans for the future.

MRS. MARK HENRY.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF SECOND DISTRICT 1919-21

I count myself most happy to have had the privileges and pleasure of acting as chief servant of the great Second District in the capacity of President. We have gone forward in a wonderful way in the beaten paths of activity, and have blazed some foot-paths in new lines.

I am at a loss to know what to record in so short a time. Unusual interest has been manifested in art, during the past two years. In McKinney, Sherman, Waxahachie, Denton, Bonham, and Dallas, the Art schools and Art study clubs are waxing strong in interest. The Dallas Art Association has proven a great stimulus to the pursuance of the study all over the District. Civics has had a prominent place in the Second District; still holding the gavel for the most health surveys. The Second District has planted trees, flowers and shrubs, made successful war on flies, mosquitoes and germs of all kinds, studied the nutrition of children, and has furthered all civic movements. In public health the greatest stress of the two years work has been in placing Public Health nurses and in health education. Clean-up campaigns have been urged and carried out in cities and villages. Inspection of school children has continued through the administration. Three special activities in conservation have been centered upon tree planting and protection. Supervised school gardens and bird preservation.

Audobon Societies have been organized. The Denton clubs awarded prizes for bird essays and house-building. Arbor day was magnified and spraying and caring for trees is made popular by the agitation of conservation committees.

The Linz cup was given the Second District in San Antonio for the most improvements in parks and playgrounds. The waste places in the Second District have been made to bloom as a rose garden.

The Second District has her share in the Good Roads movement. The highway between Dallas and Denton begun in March is now complete, and puts these two cities near neighbors.

Americanization work has been accomplished largely under the heads of other departments or work as well as all activities rightly guided, lead to Americanization.

Literature Committee has emphasized contests in literary composition and Mrs. Sharlie Fair Acre of Plano was awarded the medal for the best poem. Through the Shakespeare Club, Waxahachie, three prizes were awarded to the English Department of the High School.

One County Library has been established—the Cooke Co. Library in Gainesville. It was the second established in the state, and received 300 volumes of overseas books from the State Library.

Education has been the pinnacle of all efforts. Bills in Legislature pertaining to better salaries, free text books, etc., have had unstinted support.

Our most notable progress has been in Rural Life Clubs coming into the state and District Federation. The first meeting was held in Hillsboro, and was full of interest until the very last note was sounded. The second met in Bonham and thrilled all present with reports especially from rural clubs whose delegates had never before been to a Federation meeting. Twenty-three clubs were reported as federating by Club extension chairmen.

Home Economics has had a prominent part in the two years work. In fact, each Department of work has functioned in union with the whole district.

MRS. J. E. LEIGH.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF THIRD DISTRICT 1919-21

The Third District has passed successfully through the after-war conditions, and now, rehabilitated, is already reaching out for higher and better things.

New clubs are being organized, old clubs, with renewed interest, are seeking new fields of endeavor. Truly the outlook is bright.

At the last District convention, an unprecedented number of splendid club reports were given; reports of District Chairmen proved the mutually active interest in all lines of work. Unusual results from efforts along educational lines show that the women are working with the fundamentals to insure good government. All seem working together for the greatest good.

The present administration retires pleased with the broad, wholesome experience gained,—feeling that their efforts have not been in vain.

Realizing that sowing and reaping must be the part of all, we assure our successors of our hearty interest and co-operation.

With kindest greetings and best wishes to the convention now in session,

Sincerely,
MRS. C. A. ATKINS, Pres.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF FOURTH DISTRICT 1919-21

Two years ago, at the close of the 1919 annual conference of the Texas Federated Women's Clubs, the present retiring President of the 4th District was inducted into office, probably being the most uninformed and inexperienced officer which the Federation has ever had. The only excuse which can be offered for such temerity on her part is that the situation was rather a desperate one and some one had to save the office from going by default. We were all in a sad state of demobilization, and no one cared to assume any responsibility which could be avoided. Many clubs had suspended entirely while the membership devoted itself to Red Cross and other war work and the majority of them had given up the most prominent and capable of their leaders to the same great cause. Only Mrs. O. L. Clark, the 4th District's War President, by her wise and experienced leadership and great personal popularity had kept the District from disintegrating. That the present retiring president has left much to be done, no one can be more humbly aware than herself;—that the experience has been of incalculable value to her, no one more proudly acknowledges;—and thanks to the kindly advice and wise counsel of some of the truly big women of the Federation whom she is privileged to call her friends, and the hearty co-operation of the majority of the clubs, we feel that something has been done towards a return to more normal conditions in the District. Although it cannot be claimed that any very great results are yet apparent still we do believe and hope that much preparatory work has been done, and we trust that the incoming president will find things in such shape, that with her wisdom, training and experience and her added advantage of being well known, loved and trusted, not only in the 4th District, but in the whole Federation, she may be able to bring about great results during the next two years.

We have added ten new clubs during this administration to the 4th District roster, and have seen an awakening of life in some which seemed nearly defunct. We finished paying our quota of the war-fund deficit.

The two District meetings held during our term of office were full of interest and enthusiasm, and proved very helpful and instructive, while too much cannot be said in praise of the good will and hospitality of the people of Orange and Caldwell.

The Treasurer's last report showed ninety dollars in the treasury, and the credit for this excellent showing must be largely given to the generosity of an ex-club woman, now prevented by the nature of her employment from active participation in the work, who has done all of the multigraphing, and much of the typing without charge, as her contribution to the cause. She is Mrs. Letha M. Poland, Secty. to the Dean of Engineering, A. & M. College of Texas.

There has been a good deal of interest shown in the Rural Work and several clubs have reached out to assist in the organizing of Community Welfare Clubs, and others have been responsible for Parent-Teachers Associations.

The President has responded to every invitation to visit the clubs except on two occasions when absent from the state, and has received many gratifying assurances of interest and support.

Of the breadth and vision gained, the valuable lessons learned, the wonderful friendships made, and best of all the opportunity to serve, we feel that we have no words to express our appreciation of what this experience has meant to us, and best of all has been the association with the splendid women who are the leaders in this great state of Texas.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. J. C. NAGLE, President.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF FIFTH DISTRICT 1919-21

This administration, cognizant of its sacred obligation to democracy, and realizing the responsibility of the task to lead in wise citizenship at this trying period, has fearlessly and worthily faced the obstacles and difficulties of a reconstruction period characterized, as it always is, by restless confusion, wide dissatisfaction, and general upheaval. The war clouds have been dissipated from the battle grounds of foreign countries only to gather in ominous and threatening banks over the industrial and financial fields of our own country. To meet its part of the responsibility in this crisis, the Fifth District has displayed wisdom in purpose, unity in action, and co-operation in achievement.

Education is the only means of social stability, and education in its broad sense has been the chief endeavor of the Fifth District at this time. It has been busy in educating the vast number of foreigners in our midst in the rudiments of the English language and in the fundamental principles of our government, by establishing schools, Foreign Mothers Clubs, an International Institute, a House of Neighborly Service, and Camp Schools. It is educating the young in the matters of thrift, of humane treatment, of home economics, of sanitary laws. It is teaching the people to evaluate the influence and benefits of parks and playgrounds for needed recreation; of good roads for commerce and progress; of preserving our forests and waterways for usefulness and beauty.

Art has been emphasized, civics encouraged, and music fostered as means of advancing greater culture and refinement among the people, Public Health and rural life, fire prevention, community interest, conservation, and legislative measures have received a steady impetus at the hands of the clubs of this district. Especial interest centers around the undertakings and achievements of the larger organizations in the district—the Rio Grande Association, with eighteen clubs; the Bee County Federation; the Southern Association of College Women; the great music organization; the Council of Jewish Women; and the House Wives League. Bound together by special ties, these loyal groups bring added strength to the Federation's departments of work.

The District meetings at Brownsville and San Marcos disclosed the eagerness, efficiency, and unity with which the clubs were co-operating to accomplish the multiplicity of endeavors recommended by the State Federation. Many new clubs have been organized and a large number federated.

Limitations of time and space prevent the enumeration of successful individual accomplishment and co-operative club achievement, but satisfactory progress has been made along all lines, and the Fifth District can be relied on to perform all the duties of federation work with ability and success.

MRS. L. T. SHAVER, President.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT OF SIXTH DISTRICT 1919-21

No report of five hundred words can adequately present the work of the women of the Sixth District in the past two years.

The District has grown from forty-six Clubs to seventy-five.

The two district meetings have been largely attended, and full of enthusiasm—the last was unique in that we were guests of Simmons College, Abilene, and since at times the entire student body was present, we boast the largest attendance ever enjoyed by a District Convention. One hundred twenty delegates and out of town visitors were present, with a large number of State Officers.

The District Chairmen as a whole have done splendid work—the Departments of Home Economics, Education, Art, Civics, Thrift, Literature, Public Health, Forestry, Conservation, and Club Extension having been especially active.

A review of the yearbooks is truly inspiring—to note the vital subjects studied, and the very practical way they are being put into practice.

Problems of the Home and the Child are themes of first importance, with Home Economics, Food Sanitation, Dietetics, Health Habits, Thrift, Interior Decoration and outward beautification as subjects of serious study.

Community activities include better sanitation, the extermination of weeds, rats and mosquitos, tree planting and the beautification of parks and vacant lots.

Larger community interests have been promoted by almost universal study of good citizenship, fire prevention, censoring of motion pictures, co-operation with Red Cross and American Legion, and free, instructive moving pictures for school children.

Many Club women are acting on school boards, and the Sixth District boasts the only woman Regent of a University of Texas—Mrs. H. J. O'Hair, of Coleman.

Physical Culture has been put into many schools, and Health Nurses, and Health Officers have been secured by Club women.

Big Spring and Cisco have Domestic Science in their schools, the gift of Club women.

Brownwood and San Angelo sent girls to the summer schools at A. & M. Two kindergartens have been established.

Four pianos, four moving picture machines and victrola records and good pictures in great numbers have been given to schools.

Abilene XXI Club has organized a Civic League among the colored women, and they in turn have organized a Parent-Teachers Association, and both bodies are doing wonderful work.

In tabulating figures given in District reports, the women of the Sixth District have made more than $10,000 which is being spent in the very best of causes in their several communities.

Thousands of magazines have been collected and distributed to rural communities, schools and hospitals.

Nine Chautauquas and Lyceum Courses have been sponsored by Clubs.

Eight Clubs had Municipal Christmas Trees, or dispensed Christmas Cheer to the poor of their towns.

Ten Clubs sent relief to Europe's starving children. Colorado Hesperian sending $60.00 and a full carload of 20,000 lbs. of clothing.

Goldthwaite gave a linen shower for two tubercular girls and received $75.00 worth of bed linen.

Ballinger Civic League gave a similar shower and received 200 pieces.

Twenty-one Parks and Playgrounds are being cared for by Club women.

Approximately 4000 trees have been planted.

22 Clubs have contributed to the Girls' Training School at Gainesville.

38 Clubs have established or helped to maintain some kind of Library.

22 Clubs have done rural community work.

47 Clubs have rendered valuable assistance to their public schools.

44 Clubs have done civic work.

40 Clubs have made efforts to raise the standards of Music and Art in their community.

36 Clubs have put forth efforts to bring about better legislation for women and children.

Fourteen Federation Scholarships have been given to worthy girls in the two years.

Two new Scholarships have been secured.

Two County Federations have been added.

29 new Clubs have been added to the District.

Seven towns and eleven clubs have been visited.

1410 letters and cards have been written.

MRS. E. S. NOBLE,

President Sixth District.

DUTIES OF DISTRICT PRESIDENTS

It shall be the duty of each District President to have arranged each year the Club Roster of her District, and place copy of same in the hands of the Corresponding Secretary of the State Federation by March 1st.

She should, during her administration, endeavor to visit the young, inexperienced Clubs of her District, also those Clubs which have not been visited by the State President, and shall endeavor to extend Club organization and interest into the rural districts. She should visit any unfederated Clubs in her District, if she deems the same advisable.

Near, or at the close of each State Convention, she should call her District delegation together for a conference, and arrive at some plan whereby each delegate can carry home to her Club the work projected, and the best way to present same to arouse greater enthusiasm and interest in the State and General Federation work.

Before issuing circular letters or appeals to Clubs, she must confer with the State President regarding same.

She should suggest such action on the part of the Executive Board required to advance Federation interest in the District.

She shall appoint one member for each State Department and Division, and shall have the personnel of her committees completed as nearly as possible and a typed copy to be given to the incoming State President at the close of the annual convention.

Resolved, That in the death of Mrs. Dibrell, the Federation has sustained an irreparable loss,

"Strew on her roses, roses,
But never a spray of yew;

Ah, would that I did too."

Mrs. Barry, Chairman of the Committee submitted the following recommendations on the revision of Constitution and By-Laws:

Amendments to Constitution and By-Laws of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

FOREWORD. Suggested changes in the Constitution and By-Laws are of two kinds:

1. Those that change the subject matter and hence the organization of the Federation by (1) providing an additional officer, (2) enlarging or restricting the powers of officers and committees, and (3) changing the annual dues.

2. Those that change the sentence structure so as to clarify or condense, but do not affect the organization of the Federation. The following is a summary of the changes proposed:

1. (1) Parliamentarian is added to the list of officers.

(2) Chairman of Sub-Standing Committees and of Business Committees are made members of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is empowered to elect the Parliamentarian and the General Federation State Director. The Finance Committee is enlarged to five members with the Treasurer as chairman and the Chairman of the Endowment Committee a member. The chairman is permitted to sub-divide the committee. District Presidents are permitted to make department committee appointments without waiting for the appointment of State Chairman. District Presidents must have typed lists of such appointments ready for the incoming State President. District elections are made to conform in method to state elections. The Endowment Committee is made a bonded committee and charged with the responsibility of investing, re-investing, and collecting notes of the Endowment Fund.

2. As these changes are verbal and do not affect the organization, they need not be enumerated. The words "State Secretary to the General Federation" are eliminated in all sections because the office was abolished by the General Federation to take effect after the 1922 Biennial.

AFTERNOON CONFERENCES, NOV. 17th, 1920.

The afternoon session was divided into two Conferences. Music, Literature and Art Conference to be held in the Red Room from 2 to 4:30 P. M. with Mrs. Curry presiding, Mrs. Conger acting Secretary, and Conservation and Peace Conference held in the Oak Room at the same time. Mrs. Browning presiding, Mrs. Kennedy acting Secretary.

Minutes of the Music, Art and Literature Conference recorded by Mrs. Conger.

On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 17th at 2:40, the conference on Music, Literature and Art, was called to order by the Chm. Mrs. M. Hetty Curry. No district chairmen being present the first item on the program was dispensed with.

Miss Alexander, Director Art Dept. C. I. A., gave a most impressive talk on the subject "Opportunities for the Art Trained girl in Texas." She stressed, very convincingly, the thought that the art training which is offered in this department, at C. I. A. is exceedingly practical, fitting the student both for remunerative vocations, and for better home making capabilities. She exhibited many examples of work done by students, which proved conclusively that art training is very much worth while. Her special plea to the club women was that they encourage any and all girls who are ambitious along this line to study art.

Mrs. Abernathy, of Cleburne, Chm. of Civic Art, offered a most interesting report of the work of her committee. She especially urged that the question of an Art Commission for Texas, be held in the minds of the club women, and that they lend their most earnest efforts towards that end. Miss West informed the conference that such a commission had already been provided for.

A very able and scholarly address was made by Mr. Clarence Magee, of San Antonio on Music-Therapy.

Mr. Magee defined this as the healing of mental disturbances by the agency of music properly applied. He gave interesting personal experiences, gained during his several years service.

Mrs. Honeycutt, of Cleburne, Chm. of Library Extension, having been called upon for her report, introduced Miss Annie Webb Blanton, who told clearly and instructively about the County Libraries, existing and to be created. Discussion called forth many pertinent questions which were satisfactorily answered either by Miss Blanton or Mrs. Honeycutt. Information was given from the floor, that there is a State Library School in Austin, where librarians for these County Libraries may receive training.

Mr. Julian Onderdonk, a painter of considerable note, was then introduced who, in a charmingly simple and unaffected manner gave to the club women the message that art should be brought into every day life for the improvement of conditions, and not relegated to mere painting of pictures and making of sculpture.

The announcement of the winners of medals in the contests in original composition was then made.

The Henry B. Fall medal for the best short story went to Mrs. Fennell of El Paso; the Louise Conner medal for the best feature article, to Mrs. W. G. Davis of Wharton, while the Fanny B. Hughes medal for the best poem was given to Mrs. Sharlie Acre who by virtue of the fact that she has won this medal for five consecutive years, becomes its possessor, and the Hughes medal passes out of future contests.

Mrs. Curry announced the M. Hetty Curry medal for poem, to replace the Hughes, which announcement was greeted with applause.

This closed a really wonderful afternoon's Conference on these correlated lines.

Your organization is one of the many that for years have been doing splendid work toward preparing American womanhood for the new obligations of full citizenship which now have been assumed. Your work has been one of preparation for the women and of inspiration for the men. The knowledge that hereafter our country will have the benefit of the wise counsel and splendid institutions of its women gives added reason for confidence in its future.

AFTERNOON CONFERENCE, NOV. 18, 1920.

Minutes of Civics, Civil Service Reform, Motion Picture, Parliamentary Law Conference recorded by Mrs. Paul Donald.

The Civic, Civil Service Reform, Motion Picture, and Parliamentary Law Conference was called to order at 2:45 o'clock Thursday, Nov. 18th in the Ball Room of the St. Anthony Hotel in San Antonio, with Mrs. R. E. Buchanan of Ft. Worth presiding.

The first section of the program was devoted to the Civics committee. Mrs. J. U. Fields, the State Chairman of Civics gave her report, and told of the State Civic exhibit on display in Peacock Alley; from this exhibit a permanent traveling one is to be selected. Mrs. Fields then introduced Mr. C. C. Minatra of Haskell public schools, whose address on "Training for Citizenship in an average school" was an able discussion of practical plans for carrying on this important branch of education to make better citizens of our boys and girls.

Miss Blanton was called on by the chairman for a few remarks along this same line and responded with plans that are being made by different members of the Federation for a course in good citizenship. A few minutes to an open discussion, and Mrs. Warner made an ardent appeal for a more practical education for girls.

Mrs. Lovejoy as chairman of the committee on awarding the cup to the most beautiful and best kept court house and grounds, announced that Corpus Christi was the successful contestant for the fourth time. The El Paso court house received honorable mention as being a most beautiful and well kept building, but having no grounds.

Mrs. J. L. Young of Mineral Wells, chairman of Parks and Playgrounds, gave an excellent report on the Parks of Texas, and announced that the Linz cup (given for the first time this year)—to the district having the greatest number of Parks and Playgrounds was won by the second district. Mrs. Ferris gave a response for her district.

In the open discussion which followed Mrs. Lovejoy told of her plans in establishing church parks—the delegate from Mineral Wells made mention of the new Memorial park of 921 acres just secured at Mineral Wells and soon to be dedicated.

The presiding officer expressed regret that Mrs. Winter had conflicting engagements and could not address the conference at this session. Mrs. Smith, a local chairman, extended an invitation to all delegates and visitors to a tea at the Breckenridge home and an automobile drive at 4:20.

Announcement was read by secretary that Mrs. Bristle would be glad to interview anyone interested in entering Y. W. C. A. work.

The next department presented was Motion Pictures by Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, who introduced Miss Alecia Brown of the Public Welfare Dept. of Dallas. Her address on "Effects of Unwholesome Pictures on the Individual" was instructive, especially her ready answers to the rapid fire of questions from the floor. Practical thoughts on censorship were presented. Several delegates reported having picture shows in the churches of their cities.

The last number was some interesting high lights on parliamentary usage by Mrs. Buchanan; and it was deeply regretted by the conference that the time was too short to have the entire address of the State Parliamentarian.

Adjourned.

Dr. Bizzell pointed out that the greatest opportunity for club women is to place a high intellectual and moral standard on all that is done in the Home, School, Church and State.

Following this talk the hearing of reports was resumed, and Mrs. Lee Joseph, reported the work on the committee of education, stressing the work going on in the State in the training and education of illiterates. She also told of the struggle made by the women to obtain the passage of the educational amendment. Mrs. Joseph stated this report would be amplified at the joint conference in the afternoon. Report adopted, and recommendation referred to the Resolution Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION TEXAS FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

National Legislation and National Matters.

Whereas, There is no subject which more vitally concerns the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs than systematic and thorough education in home-making for our Texas girls, and

Whereas, The passage of the Fess bill, now pending in Congress, will make available an increasingly large appropriation for vocational Home Economics until a maximum of $100,000 at the end of ten years is reached, be it resolved

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs unqualifiedly endorses the Fess bill and that (1) a telegram be sent to Mr. Fess, urging in the name of 40,000 club women of Texas, the passage of this bill at the December term of Congress, and (2) that a letter enclosing a copy of this resolution be sent to every Texas Congressman and to each of our Senators, urging their support of the bill.

Whereas, National aid for education has become a policy of the Federal Government, in order that opportunities may be equalized, and in order that the institutions of democracy may be safeguarded, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby reaffirms its endorsement of the Smith-Towner bill, providing for the concentration of the educational agencies of the National Government into a National Department of Education, for liberal Federal appropriations for education, and for the safe-guarding of the autonomy of the States in the management of their own systems of education, and

That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to each of our Texas representatives and senators in congress.

Whereas, the Sheppard-Towner bill for the Protection of Maternity and Infancy, now pending in Congress will, if passed, reduce the present high mortality among mothers and infants and remove from the United States the shame of being tenth in rank among nations, in the protection of the health of its babies, be it resolved, that we endorse the Sheppard-Towner bill, that we request its passage at the December term of Congress, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Senator Sheppard and to each of our Texas Congressmen and Senators, urging their support of the bill.

Whereas, we believe that our National Parks are among the most precious possessions of this nation, and that their beauty and historic flora and fauna are of great importance to the welfare of our people, and

Whereas, the very life and beauty of these parks are threatened by the Federal Water Power Act, of 1920, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in convention assembled hereby registers itself as unalterably opposed to any policy that will commercialize our National Parks, and we demand that the coming Congress shall eliminate the National Parks from the Federal Water Power Act, and

That our Secretary is hereby instructed to send a copy this resolution to our Texas Senators, asking for a definite statement from them as to their attitude upon this matter, and to transmit their replies to the President of the American Civic Association, and that each District President is requested to write similar letters to the congressmen of her district and transmit the replies to the President of the American Civic Association.

Be it resolved that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorse the plan of Mr. Hoover to continue, through the American Relief Administration, the feeding of the needy children of Europe during another winter, until the harvest, and

That we hereby urge our members, upon returning to their homes, to appoint in each city, a committee of five or more women to aid and co-operate in this necessary and merciful undertaking, and

That the names of these Committee Women be reported promptly to the State Chairman, E. A. Peden, Houston, Texas.

Resolutions on the Near East Relief.

Whereas, A most desperate and deplorable condition exists today in Asia Minor, due to the cruelties and persecutions of the Christian peoples of that region on the part of the Turks, the chief sufferers being the Armenians, who have been most frightfully decimated as a result of the oppression of their enemies;

Whereas, The rescue of the people of Armenia from complete extinction is being accomplished in a large measure by the relief in various forms which has been extended to them by the people of America through the service of the Near East Relief, an organization incorporated by an act of Congress, which is feeding the starving, sheltering, the homeless, caring for the sick, the widows and the orphans, stimulating in the repatriation, rehabilitation and re-establishment of the suffering and dependent people of the Near East;

Resolved, Therefore, by the Women's Federated Clubs of Texas at their annual convention in San Antonio, November 19, 1920,

1. That we express our deepest and truest Christian sympathy with the people of Armenia in their sufferings and sorrows;

2. That we protest most emphatically and solemnly against the evident purpose of the Turks to annihilate the Armenian nation, and express the hope that our own Government will urge and insist that the Republic of Armenia be given a square and fair chance for its life;

3. That we endorse most heartily the work of the Near East Relief and pledge to it our active cooperation and generous support in its efforts to succor and sustain the Armenian people until they are able to accomplish economic self-support and political independence;

4. That we commend this worthy cause as represented by the Near East Relief to the liberality of our own people and to that of the American public generally.

STATE

Measures Endorsed As of Paramount Importance, to Receive the Most Active Efforts of the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Whereas, Women are now full citizens of Texas, and the woman's point of view is of great value in the management of State Institutions and on state and local boards, and

Whereas, Women in other states have performed service on public boards with entire success and with great advantage to the institutions so served, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby pledges itself to active effort to place women members on the boards of all state educational institutions, on the prison board, on the state board of control, on the state board of pharmacy, on the state medical board, on the county school boards, and on the boards of trustees of city and country schools.

Whereas, Our present election laws do not secure justice, either to the public or to the candidate, and whereas the Texas ballot is unduly complicated, therefore, be it resolved;

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorses such a revision of the state election laws as will effectively simplify the ballot, and will insure the carrying out of the will of the people as expressed by the ballot, and we pledge ourselves to work for such revision of these laws.

Whereas, The establishment of libraries is essential to an enlightened and educated citizenship, and

Whereas, The county library law makes possible the extension of library service to all parts of the state, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs pledges its support to the Library Commission in their demand for sufficient funds to make effective the extension of county libraries, and pledges its active efforts towards the establishment of county library service in every part of the state.

County Unit for Schools.

Whereas, The plans of managing the smaller schools of our counties now lack unity and economy, and

Whereas, In the selection of county superintendents the people are limited to the few candidates who are willing to undertake a political campaign for the offices and many of the best prepared men and women will not offer themselves for a position requiring an expensive political campaign every two years, and

Whereas, The country teacher and the country child need, even more than do the city teacher and the city child, the advantages of trained supervision, and

Whereas, In many Texas counties the schools are administered by the county judges, who have little leisure and no special training for school work, therefore, be it resolved;

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs requests of the Thirty-Seventh Legislature that they pass a law establishing, for all schools except those in incorporated cities and towns, a county unit plan of administration, with the following definite features:

(1). The selection of the county superintendent by the county board of trustees.

(2). The strengthening of the powers of the county superintendent and the county board of trustees, in the matters of selection of teachers, of requirements of teachers and salary schedules, in control of the school funds of the county, and of school consolidation.

(3). The abolition of the office of ex-officio county superintendent, by the provision that in sparsely settled counties, several counties may be united into one district, the schools to be administered by a district superintendent, to be selected by the county boards of the several counties of the district, in joint session.

That our legislative committee be instructed to work for the passage of this law.

Whereas, A just and equitable system of taxation is the aim of our best citizenship, and

Whereas, The burdens of taxation are not at present distributed equitably in the State of Texas, and

Whereas, The various interests and departments of state government, including our schools, must necessarily suffer as a result of an unstable and unjust system of taxation, therefore, be it resolved;

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorses a revision of our tax laws, and recommends the creation of a board of state tax commissioners, with power to equalize tax burdens, and to fix taxable values throughout the state.

Whereas, Suitable provision for women offenders has not been made by the State of Texas, and

Whereas, Crimes committed by women are increasing alarmingly, therefore, be it resolved;

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs actively co-operate in the movement for the establishment of a Woman's Reformatory, and that our Legislative Committee be instructed to assist in the necessary publicity, and in the presentation of the bill for the establishment of a Woman's Reformatory at the next session of the Texas Legislature, this committee to work with the committee of the Texas League of Women Voters, and the Texas Congress of Mothers, which organizations have already endorsed this movement.

(1). Whereas, Texas progress in various lines is now hampered by restrictions of an antiquated state constitution, and

(2). Whereas, more than four decades have elapsed since the last revision of the Texas State Constitution, therefore, be it resolved;

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs request that the Thirty-Seventh Legislature, at its regular session, submit to the people of Texas a resolution providing for the holding of a state constitutional convention for revising the Constitution, this proposition to be voted upon not later than November, 1921, and the convention to be held during the year 1921 or 1922, and furthermore,

That we request that provision be made for fair representation in this convention for women delegates.

Measures Endorsed by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, as Measures which They Favor and to which They Desire to Send the Aid of Their Endorsement.

INDUSTRIAL WORK.

Believing in the wisdom of the eight-hour day, the prohibition of work for women, and the prohibition of the employment of women in industry for four weeks before and four weeks after confinement, we endorse the incorporation of these provisions into our State Laws.

Whereas, The principle of a living wage is sound from an economic standpoint and whereas the protection of the motherhood and childhood is sought by the Texas minimum wage law, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorse the minimum wage law so amended as to make it applicable, without injustice, to varying conditions in different parts of the state, and

That we demand that, in the revision of this law, provisions shall be made for a woman member of the Industrial Welfare Commission, in charge of the administration of the minimum wage law.

Whereas, It is the duty of the Women's Division of the State Department of Labor to secure the enforcement of laws for the protection of women and children in industry, and

Whereas, There are now in Texas approximately 200,000 wage-earning women, and 50,000 child-workers, employed in more than 8,000 establishments, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs endorses a provision for such number of inspectors for this work as may be needed to perform effectively the duties of the Women's Division.

Whereas, A report is current that the Women's Division of the Labor Department is to be abolished, be it resolved that we hereby express ourselves as unalterably opposed to abolishing this department of service for women and children in our state.

TAXATION.

Whereas, various Art Leagues and Art Societies of Texas have property devoted wholly and without charge to the promotion of learning, and

Whereas, such property is used by institutions of learning and education, and

Whereas, in the past, on occasions this property has been held as not exempt from taxation, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs endorse such an amendment to Article 7507, Vernon Sayles' Civil Statutes, 1914, as will, in future, exempt from taxation all property, real and personal, belonging to any art gallery or association for the promotion of art, which, is devoted exclusively to the promotion of education and the dissemination of learning.

HISTORICAL MATTERS.

Jefferson Davis Highway.

Whereas, The United Daughters of the Confederacy, like ourselves, have for their chief objects educational, historical, philanthropic, and civic movements, and

Whereas, We have pledged co-operation with all worthy organizations of women, and

Whereas, Their present civic work is the promotion of a National trans-continental highway, to be known as the Jefferson Davis National Highway, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorse this movement, and pledges co-operation in this enterprise which will advance the cause of good roads, better rural schools, rural clubs, and county parks, all measures for which our organization stands.

TEXAS HISTORY.

Resolved, That the Federation of Women's Clubs hereby pledges itself to study the history of Texas, beginning with our own locality, city, and county, and to do our best to preserve the memory, tradition, and history, of all who deserve well of Texas, and be it further resolved,

That we shall have frequently on our programs some features of Texas history.

PRACTICAL CITIZENSHIP.

Whereas, The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs stands for the best use of the powers of citizenship, and

Whereas, This is impossible without information as to the mechanics of politics, therefore, be it resolved,

That we request that each district convention make provision in its programs for non-partisan talks on practical political education, and that individual clubs be urged to include in their courses of study, programs on practical civics.

EDUCATION.

Whereas, There are now many poorly constructed wooden structures and comparatively few substantial buildings on the campus of the University of Texas in the City of Austin; and

Whereas, These "shacks" resisting neither heat, cold, nor rain, are an actual menace to the health of the students and teachers who have class or laboratory work therein; and

Whereas, The youth of Texas are deserving and entitled to comfortable quarters at all times; therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in convention assembled, do this 20th day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Twenty, pray the Honorable Legislature of Texas to take some action to relieve the aforesaid deplorable conditions.

The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorses the following matters relating to education:

(1) The teaching of Thrift in systematic lessons, as a part of the curriculum of every school within the state.

(2) The teaching of Texas history in both the elementary grades and the high school.

(3) Systematic instruction in civics and training in citizenship, adapted to the work of the different grades, and taught in a practical way in every grade of the elementary schools and the high school.

(4) The revision of the compulsory attendance law, so as to raise the standards of exemption, so as to provide for a central power of enforcement, and so as to provide that the English language be made the medium of instruction in both public and private and parochial schools.

(5) The use of moving pictures for strictly educational purposes, the extension of visual education, and the more effective censorship of motion pictures used for purposes of recreation.

(6) Adequate support of the State Department of Education, placing superintendents and supervisors therein employed on the same sort of basis, of remuneration as that obtaining in our best state colleges.

(7) The provision by the Thirty-seventh Legislature at its next regular session for a comprehensive survey of the State's educational system, in order that its various parts may be co-ordinated and fitted into a cohesive and correlated system in the interests of harmony, economy, and efficiency.

(8) That we endorse, as a part of the equipment of every school, the acquisition of scales on which the children shall be weighed at regular intervals, the results to be recorded on the report cards sent to their parents.

Whereas, The Dallas Saturday Night, our official organ, has during the past year given the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs invaluable support and publicity, devoting an entire page each week, to the work of the State Federation; and

Whereas, During the year now entered on, the Dallas Saturday Night will continue giving a page each week to Federated Club news,

Be it resolved, That we again elect the Dallas Saturday Night to be the official organ of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs; and further, be it resolved, that each member of the Texas Federation is urged to become a subscriber to Dallas Saturday Night as our official organ; and further,

Be it resolved, In consideration of the Dallas Saturday Night being our official organ, that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, do give preference at all times when making purchases to advertisers who patronize the columns of Dallas Saturday Night, our official organ.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION.

The Convention hereby expresses its appreciation of the group of Mother Goose Melodies, written by the well-known Texas composer, Louis Versel, and dedicated to the Texas Federation.

Whereas, Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education rendered, in the Texas Better Schools Campaign, invaluable service, acting as one of our most indefatigable campaign speakers, and sending to us also, Dr. J. L. McBrien, his specialist on rural schools, therefore, be it resolved,

That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby express to our distinguished National Commissioner of Education, and to Dr. J. L. McBrien, our deep appreciation of their assistance and of their interest in Texas schools.

Be it resolved, that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs desires to express to the City of San Antonio its sense of the warmth and generosity of the hospitality extended to the Federation. We desire expressly to thank the City Federation of Women's Clubs and the organizations of San Antonio men who have so cordially co-operated in our entertainment.

We extend to the San Antonio Express, the Light, and the Evening News our thanks for the generous space which they have devoted to reports of our

The Recording Secretary, being unable to be present, the President was authorized to appoint a Recording Secretary pro tem. Mrs. R. P. Robbins was appointed.

The President, in her greetings to the Board, expressed appreciation of the compliance of the Fort Worth club women with her wish, that no entertainment be given because the Board had come together for business. She also said in part: "A new world is in the making. Almost everything is uncertain. One thing, however, everybody does know and that is that woman's part in the scheme of things is greater than ever before; that with her increased power comes increased responsibility. This power was evidenced as we conferred with the Governor and the Legislators and is evidenced every day in the co-operation sought by people, institutions, and agencies. With the increased power of women, there should be as little lost motion and as great efficiency as possible in machinery like ours, covering the big state." The district presidents were urged to continue active work until the November convention, even though their successors are to be elected at the spring meetings.

The President then offered the following recommendations:

"That a closer co-operation may be established and the efficiency of the Extension Departments of our educational institutions and of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs be increased:

I recommend that steps be taken by this Board toward securing a Department of Women's Club Work in the Extension Division of our State Educational Institutions."

"That all new citizens may be impressed with their responsibilities and their privileges as voters in the world's greatest commonwealth, and; that becoming a citizen of the United States may be considered a profound experience,

I recommend the observance by the club women of Texas, of "Citizenship Day" as outlined by the chairman of the Department of American Citizenship in the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, that a chairman be appointed to undertake this work and that we, the members of the Board here assembled, pledge ourselves to aid in this and to use every endeavor to have this celebration in our own communities."

"That information about the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and interest in these organizations be increased:

I recommend that every federated club in Texas be urged to appoint from its membership a federation counselor whose duty it shall be to report at each meeting something of interest from these organizations or about them, and, further, that each club subscribe for the State and General Federation official organ for this counselor.

I recommend that the Board of Directors of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs endorse the cotton consumption movement started by the Housewives Chamber of Commerce of Dallas, and, further, that we pledge ourselves to forward this movement in every way possible."

By unanimous consent, action on the above recommendations was deferred until later.

Short greetings were given by the Vice-President-at-Large.

Mrs. Buchanan, representing the First District, stated that because of illness, Mrs. Henry, President, would be unable to attend the Council meeting and reported that plans for the district convention to be held at Wichita Falls, April 25-26-27 were well under way.

Mrs. Browning gave greetings for the Third District and stated that indications pointed to a most successful meeting in Marshall, April 18-19-20.

Mrs. Nagle, President, extended greetings for the Fourth District and expressed the hope that all officers and chairmen would find it possible to attend the meeting in Caldwell, April 14-15-16. Mrs. Nagle stated that rural work would be stressed during this meeting.

Mrs. Shaver, President of the Fifth District, could not be present, owing to the sudden death of her brother-in-law, Mr. S. I. Munger, of Dallas. Mrs. Joseph gave greetings for Mrs. Shaver.

The Chair stated that the meeting at San Marcos, April 11-12-13, promises to be unusually interesting because of the innovation that Mrs. Shaver is bringing into her program, which seems to be very practical and helpful. After a chairman or delegate reports on certain departments of work then follows a practical demonstration, workable and usable by the smallest towns.

Mrs. Williams, of Sonora, representing Mrs. E. S. Noble, President, gave greetings for the Sixth District. Mrs. Williams spoke of the thrift style show to be staged in the Sixth District and urged every one present to become participants. Mrs. Williams stated also that the meeting to be held in Abilene, April 28-29 promises to be interesting and brought out this unique feature, that all delegates are to be entertained in Simmons College.

Mrs. Barry and Mrs. Pennybacker gave short greetings.

Miss West spoke of the young ladies who are soliciting advertisements for the Precinct Year Book and asked that the members of the Board co-operate with these solicitors in every possible way.

Mrs. Douglass, Chairman of Art, spoke of the increased interest in art throughout Texas, and stated that there are six exhibits now touring the state.

Mrs. Fields, Chairman of Civics, asked for help in civic work and stressed the fact that it had been her experience the boys and girls gave greater co-operation in this work than did the grown-ups. Mrs. Fields gave an account of the splendid civic work accomplished in her town by the colored people led by one of their own race.

In the discussion that followed, Mrs. Barry spoke of her visit to the convention of the Negro Federation where she represented the President of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, who was absent from the state. Mrs. Barry said that she found at this convention a body of trained women, and the general feeling among these women seemed to be expressed by one of them who said:

"If by social equality you mean social intermingling, we do not want it; but we do want an equal opportunity to express ourselves and our race." Mrs. Barry brought out the fact that it has been Mrs. Floore's desire since the time of her inauguration as president, to make work with the colored people of the state one of the important endeavors of the Federation, but that by the advice of the Executive Committee this has been postponed until now.

It was the consensus of opinion that practical citizenship should include both negroes and Mexicans.

Mrs. Barry moved that the Board endorse the Mexican survey to be made by the Council of State-wide Social Agencies and lend whatever aid is possible.

In the discussion of the motion, Mrs. Barry suggested that the policies of the Federation, in the way of extending aid, would probably be determined by Mrs. H. F. Ring, who is the representative of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs on the Council of Statewide Agencies.

Miss Gearing said, in connection with the Child Health and Nutrition Clinic, held by the Home Economics Department of the University of Texas, that Mexican conferences had been held in the Valley, and some conferences for the colored people had been held in other parts of the state. Mrs. Barry suggested, as an aid to raising the standard of living among the Mexican and colored people, that the Federation women stand behind all our state educational institutions and other agents that are working for community betterment, and spoke of the value of the colored home demonstration agents to the rural colored population. (Motion prevailed.)

Mrs. Barry moved that a committee be appointed, to be composed of the Chairman of Civics, Education, Home Economics, Public Health and Social and Industrial Conditions, with the President as ex-officio member, to make an investigation of the negro problem with a view of presenting at the next meeting of the Board of Directors, a plan of action for the women of the Federation whereby some phases of the problem may be solved. Mrs. Barry suggested that this committee be enlarged if determined advisable by the chairman. (Motion carried.)

The Chair stated that at this time opportunity would be given to present invitations for the next annual convention. Mrs. D. C. Webb, Jr., President of the City Federation of Women's Clubs of Fort Worth, was introduced and extended, in cordial words, invitations from the City Federation of Women's Clubs, Council of Mothers, the Mayor, the Star-Telegram and Fort Worth Record, the Chamber of Commerce, and from the Rotary, Lions, and Kiwanis clubs of the city.

The Chair asked the Corresponding Secretary to read communications, and letters from Houston were read extending invitations in behalf of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, the Mayor, the Chamber of Commerce, and Manager of the Rice Hotel.

Invitations from El Paso, which were presented at San Antonio convention, November, 1920, were repeated.

Upon motion, Fort Worth was unanimously chosen as the convention city for 1921.

In view of the fact that El Paso has not had the convention in a number of years, and because the invitations from this city were extended last November, Miss Gearing moved that the El Paso people be written a letter expressing regret that the increase in railroad and Pullman fare makes it impracticable to accept their invitation at this time.

The fact that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs had held its last two conventions in South Texas made it seem wiser to choose the central part of the state, but the hope was unanimously voiced that Houston would again extend the invitation for the convention to be held in that city at no distant date. Adjournment for lunch.

AFTERNOON SESSION, MARCH 31, 1921.

Board called to order promptly at 2:00 P. M. by the President. Plans of the committee chairmen continued.

Mrs. Lee Joseph, Chairman of Education, urged increased interest in the Smith-Towner Bill, and stated that this bill hereafter will be known by another name than "Smith", as said man has retired, but that the name of "Towner" will be retained. Mrs. Joseph spoke of the splendid work that is being done at the army post in San Antonio in laying the ground-work for an educated army.

Mrs. Wm. Bacon, in behalf of Dallas Housewives Chamber of Commerce, asked the State Chairman of Education to urge the girls of the graduating classes of the state to use cotton as material for graduating dresses.

Mrs. R. P. Robbins, State Chairman of Home Economics, stated that the girls clothing contest for the Texas high schools, held under the direction of Miss Lillian Peek, of the Department of Home Economics of the State Department of Education, would this year be classified in two groups. This necessitates the awarding of a second group of prizes. The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs gave as its prize last year a silver loving cup, and this year Miss Peek requests that a second cup be given for schools in group "B." A motion was made and carried, that said cup be purchased.

Mrs. Robbins stressed the value of hot lunches in the schools along with scales for weighing the children, and stated that the county home demonstration agents are a potent factor for home making in the rural districts.

In the discussion, which followed, Miss Gearing suggested that scholastic credit should be given for physical training in the public school system. Mrs. Pennybacker urged the women to use their influence to discourage girls in the teens from wearing sequin dresses, which are, in the first place very expensive, and, secondly, are in bad taste for a young girl's apparel.

Miss West moved that a telegram be sent Governor Neff, urging his approval of the bill for rural aid appropriation. The Chair appointed Miss West and Mrs. Barry to word and send said telegram, which was as follows:

"We respectfully urge your approval of rural schools aid bill." This telegram was signed by each member of the Board present and payment of same was made by pro-rating the amount among the signers.

Mrs. J. C. Butts, of Hillsboro, recently appointed Chairman of Fire Prevention Committee, expressed her enthusiasm in this work.

Mrs. W. C. Martin, Chairman of the Rural Life Committee, reported that a sufficient number of the Precinct Year Books would be ready for distribution at the time of the spring meetings.

Miss Gearing, Chairman of Public Health, urged renewed interest in behalf of the Sheppard-Towner Bill.

Mrs. Robbins called attention to the health measure enacted by the past legislature, which requires employes in food establishments to obtain health certificates.

Mrs. C. W. Simpson, Chairman of Transportation Committee, reported that, owing to lack of sufficient number attending, no rates would be given for the spring meeting; but that rates for the Council Meeting in Salt Lake City, June 12-18, would be available.

The President's recommendations were taken up. The first recommendation relating to Citizenship Day was adopted. In the discussion which followed the motion to adopt, Mrs. Pennybacker stated that she urges every town in every state to observe July 4th as Citizenship Day; that a special request from the General Federation Committee on Motion Pictures had come asking that some Southern State volunteer to stage a pre-celebration of Citizenship Day, preferably in May, for the screen; these pictures to be used as suggestions for other states in the celebration of Citizenship Day, July 4th. The observance of Citizenship Day is not asked for this year only, but as a national celebration for all time to come. The Chair asked that any woman, who would volunteer to use her influence to the end that her community observe this pre-celebration of Citizenship Day to stand. The following responded: Mrs. Nagle, for Bryan; Mrs. Bacon, for Dallas; Mrs. Douglas, for Hamlin; Mrs. Joseph, for San Antonio; Mrs. Fields, for El Paso; Mrs. Saunders, for Fort Worth. Miss Gearing's motion that the President appoint a chairman to take charge of the celebration of Citizenship Day, carried. Mrs. J. U. Fields, of Haskell, was appointed to fill this position.

The second recommendation relating to a Department of Women's Club Work in the educational institutions of the state, was then taken up. The corresponding secretary read a letter from Miss Marie Mauk, assistant in woman's club work in the University of Oklahoma. Miss Blanton reminded the Board that on the faculty in so many of our state schools are trained club women. Mrs. Pennybacker spoke of the value of affiliating the Federation girls' literary societies in educational institutions, and mentioned in particular the ones at North Texas Normal College of Industrial Arts, and Kidd-Key College.

Mrs. Barry spoke in appreciation of Mrs. L. A. Kidd-Key, who twenty years ago conceived the idea of such affiliation, and stated that one requirement for graduation in Kidd-Key College is one year's actual work in the college club. It seemed to be the general idea that it should be the duty of the woman in charge of such a department to train girls in co-operative community work.

Mrs. Barry also spoke of the work being done in the Junior A. & M. Colleges at Stephenville and Arlington in training girls in the Home Economics Departments, as County Home Demonstration Agents.

Miss Blanton moved to amend the original motion as follows: "That a committee be appointed for this purpose and that this committee be instructed to take such steps as may be fit to secure the co-operation of other Texas colleges with the work of the Federation of Women's clubs." Motion carried.

Since the consolidation of the "Dallas Saturday Night" with the "Mirror" and "Observer" leaves the Federation without an official organ, Messrs. Lytle and Wallingford, representing the "Mirror," presented the plans of this paper and made a proposition to the Board. Action on this was deferred until later.

Miss Blanton spoke on some of the difficulties which have confronted her in the discharge of her duties and stressed several points for consideration. (First) the selection of legislators. (Second) more time for the Legislators to consider bills, and suggested two measures for the women to work for;

On motion of Mrs. Pennybacker, it was agreed to hold an evening session from 8:00 to 10:00.

Mrs. Wright and Miss Shelton extended an invitation to the Board of Directors for luncheon at the Fort Worth City Club on Friday. The invitation was enthusiastically received and accepted.

Adjournment.

EVENING SESSION, MARCH 31, 1921.

Session called to order promptly at 8:00 P. M. by the President. Twenty members were present. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison.

Mrs. J. L. Lovejoy, Chairman of Motion Pictures, urged that special attention be given motion picture legislation to come up in June, and stressed the importance of putting educational pictures in schools.

Miss Blanton, Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, reported that she intended sending a digest of all resolutions bearing on departmental work adopted by the Board of the District Chairmen of the Resolution Committee for consideration at the spring meetings.

Mrs. R. E. Buchanan, State Chairman of Parliamentary Law, reported a great interest for parliamentary usage in clubs throughout the state.

Mrs. Martin moved that the money accruing from the advertisements in the Precinct Year Book be placed in the General Fund of the Federation. In the discussion, which followed, Mrs. Barry spoke of the success of Mrs. Martin's plan, saying that it had been recommended as a model for the committee on County Co-operation in the General Federation. Motion prevailed.

Miss Gearing, Chairman of the special committee for the budget presented a recommendation which consisted of three divisions and upon motion of Mrs. Pennybacker, was divided into three parts: (1) That the allotment of the President of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs be increased to $50 a month, and the traveling expenses of the President to all state and district meetings be paid by the Federation. (2) That this increase of $20 in the president allotment take effect with the beginning of this fiscal year. (3) That the Federation pay one-half the traveling expenses and $5 per day for incidentals of the President (as Director) to the Council Meeting in Salt Lake City, June 12-18, 1921. Recommendation adopted.

Miss West, Historian, made a plea for the officers and chairmen to send in to her, at the end of this administration, a concise report of their two years' work.

Miss Kate Friend, who was appointed to take charge of the sale of the Federation Histories, mailed to the Board a report in which she stated that 555 histories had been sold. Miss Friend urged every woman on the Board to take more interest in placing these histories and stressed the fact that if they would attend a City Federation and impress upon the clubs the obligation each to do its bit in this Federation movement, the matter would very soon be disposed of in regard to the clubs. Miss Friend stated also that several members of the Board are still without a history.

Miss West presented the following resolution which was unanimously adopted: "Resolved, that the Board of Directors request the President and Legislative Chairman of each district to take steps to enlist all clubs and individuals in active service for the presentation and passage of the following bills at the special session of the Legislature, if possible; that is: (a) "English Language Bill;" (b) "School Administration Bill." That these shall be presented and explained at the District Meetings. It was further moved and carried, that the Corresponding Secretary send a copy of said resolution to the District Presidents.

The Corresponding Secretary read telegrams from Mesdames Wentland and Robinson expressing regret because of enforced absence.

MORNING SESSION—APRIL 1, 1921

The meeting was called to order promptly at 9:30 A. M. by the President. Twenty-seven members were present. The Lord's Prayer was said in unison. Minutes of the previous sessions were read, corrected and approved.

Dr. Carrie Weaver Smith, of the Girls' Training School, Gairesville, made a splendid talk, outlining the factors which go to make the kind of institution the Federation desires. These points embraced the value of shelter, in which Dr. Smith stressed the cottage versus the dormitory plan; wholesome food, adequate clothing, physical examination; vocational training and guidance; cultural training and adequate parole system.

The plans of the committee chairmen were then resumed.

Mrs. A. B. Honeycutt, Chairman of Library Extension, gave as a slogan for this committee "Books for Everybody," and said that splendid results had been obtained in establishing county libraries.

Music, presented the following resolution: "That the Texas Federation of Music Clubs pay to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, as a Department of that organization, a flat rate of $25 per annum, which shall cover dues of all clubs in the Texas Federation of Music Clubs." (Adopted).

Mrs. Lyons suggested that, with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Chair appoint a committee to confer with Mrs. Lyons about dues for this fiscal year.

Mrs. Lovejoy offered to Mrs. Lyons representing the Music Clubs a medal for the best song.

Mrs. Moore, Chairman of the Program Committee, asked that a vote be taken as to whether the Department Chairman favor conferences similar to those held in San Antonio during the annual convention. The vote was in favor of the conferences.

Question as to the standing of chairmen of special committees was answered by the following motion of Mrs. Pennybacker: "That the status of State Chairmen of Special Committees be referred to and determined by the Executive Committee."

Mrs. W. R. Potter, Chairman of Thrift, reported the establishment of many Thrift Banks in the schools throughout the state.

Mrs. C. D. Reimers, Chairman Printing and Page, reported only thirty Federation pins on hand, and asked for instructions concerning same.

Mrs. Saunders moved the appointment of a committee to submit new designs for pin. (Adopted). Mrs. Reimers was appointed, with power to add to committee as she may desire.

Mrs. Maggie W. Barry, State Chairman of special committee for Home Demonstration Agents, as outlined by the General Federation, spoke of the activities of the club women in securing appropriations in their respective counties for these agents.

Consideration of the President's recommendations was again taken up.

The third recommendation, that a Federation counselor be appointed from the members of each local club and that clubs subscribe for General Federation News and the official organ of the state for said officer, was adopted.

The fourth recommendation concerning cotton consumption was amended by striking out the word "original" and substituting "recently revived," and adopted as amended.

Mrs. Robbins, chairman of the special committee to investigate the advisability of changing the time of annual, state and district meetings, moved the discontinuance of the committee and suggested that this be a matter for thought but no immediate action. (Carried).

The Corresponding Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Ring, Chairman of Social and Industrial Conditions, in which she spoke of the investigation of the prison system by the Legislature. Stress was given the importance of educating the individual club women in her responsibility as to the duties of citizenship.

Mrs. Robinson, Chairman of Legislature Committee, in a letter to the Board, stated that: "Not until our women are waked up to realize their responsibilities will much be accomplished in the way of legislation. And right here we might say that we were, personally, converted to the need of a salaried secretary for the Joint Committee to remain in Austin during the sessions of the Legislature."

Miss Gearing called attention to the fact that at present we have no minimum wage law, and expressed the hope that our legislative committee could present at the next session of the legislature a workable law.

The Chair suggested that each chairman write

Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Ring concerning her interest in the Minimum Wage bill, and that as women working for the good of women and children in Texas, we should stand solidly behind bills in which we are interested and write our legislators to this effect.

The Chair requested the corresponding secretary to read a letter from Mr. W. A. Stevens, of the "Dallas Saturday Night," which letter set forth a proposition regarding a nofficial organ for the Federation.

Mrs. Pennybacker moved that the matter of deciding an official organ be referred to a committee with power to act. (Carried).

Miss West presented the following resolution: "Resolved, that the Board of Directors of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs request their Executive Committee to communicate with the editors of the larger dailies in the six largest towns of the state, requesting them to devote more space to publication of club news, and especially to have articles and editorials on the subjects of general public interest that the Federation fosters." (Adopted).

Mrs. J. C. Butts, Chairman Fire Prevention, reported ninety-six schools teaching fire prevention, and presented a recommendation concerning a law for the study of fire prevention in the schools. Mrs. Buchanan moved that the recommendation be referred to the Legislative Committee.

Mrs. Barry moved that the President call together the committee appointed to study the negro problem for the purpose of electing a chairman and determine ways of making investigations. Motion carried, and the Chair called a meeting for 3 P. M.

The Chair gave several suggestions of interest to the next administration; one concerning greater economy in printing Federation stationery, and suggested that the name of the State President and State Treasurer appear on State and District Presidents' stationery; this to tie up more closely the state with the district officers.

During this meeting attention was several times called to the fact that many clubs still think they can be members of the district without becoming members of the state, and the President stressed the fact that this misunderstanding would not exist if the names of the State President and State Treasurer appeared on the stationery of all District Presidents.

The Chair stated that in order to bring into closer relationship the State with the General Federation she had ordered 300 copies of the General Federation News for distribution at the spring meetings. On motion of Mrs. Pennybacker, $15 to cover cost of same was ordered paid from the treasury.

The Chair called attention to the General Federation Council Meeting to be held in Salt Lake City, June 12-18 and stated there would be reduced railroad rates to the meeting.

Mrs. Butler, Chairman of Club Extension, reported three additional applications just received as follows:

Extension Service Club, Bryan.

Reading Club, Bryan.

The Woman's Club, El Campo.

(Motion to adopt supplemental report carried).

A telegram from Mrs. Nagle, at College Station, stated that she found on her desk on her arrival home application of three clubs, but owing to material not being in hand no action could be taken.

Mrs. Pennybacker, in a few words, told of Chautauqua, (N. Y.) as a delightful and worth-while place for the club women to spend the summer.

The Corresponding Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Shaver regretting that she could not be present with the Board. This was made impossible by the sudden death of her brother-in-law, Mr. S. I. Munger, of Dallas. Mrs. Robbins moved that the Corresponding Secretary write a letter of condolence to Mrs. Shaver.

The Finance Committee recommended, "That an expense travel form, similar to that at present in temporary use by all officers in the Texas Federation in the budget study, be adopted by the Federation to be used by all Federation officials traveling on official business at the expense of the Federation."

The Chair stated that the 1921 annual convention would be held in Fort Worth, the week of November 14, the Board to begin a session promptly at 10:00 A. M. Monday, November 14th.

On motion of Mrs. Pennybacker, appreciation was expressed to Mrs. Wright and Miss Shelton for their generous luncheon invitations extended to the Board.

The Chair expressed appreciation of the confidence in her as shown in the increased allotment and payment of expenses to the Council Meeting and to the State and District meetings, and still greater appreciation of the splendid and unselfish service of the women.

Adjournment.

Mrs. L. T. Shaver, recommended that the District meetings be delegates, meetings with only a limited number of talks or addresses from State Officers. That the district program committee use illustrations and speakers as much as possible, on departments of work, from their own communities.

Mrs. Pennybacker was called upon and asked permission to postpone her talk until some other session. Time granted.

The President offered the following suggestions:

We who have made the plans and directed the policies of this administration are, during these two days, holding our last meeting together for this purpose.

Our chief desire, at this time, is not to recall what we have done; it is rather to counsel together in order that the work may go on with increasing efficiency.

Every incoming administration should profit by the experiences of the outgoing administration.

As many of the leaders of the next administration are with us in this Board your president would like to give, out of her experience these two years, some suggestions. Most of these are not new.

The work should be visualized as a whole. Experiences and material should be passed from the old officers and chairmen to the new. The new state president and corresponding secretary will have urgent invitations to go from this convention to Cleburne and there for as many days as necessary go over with the president and corresponding secretary, then retired, all material that will help them in their new work.

Believing that no great work can be done by an organization that attempts something new and different every two years, we of this administration have followed worth-while plans and policies of other administrations. Your president hopes this will be continued.

The Federation should function as a whole. The general plans and policies of the national organization should as far as practicable be carried out in each state. The plans and policies of the state should be carried out in each district; those of the district in the county; those of the county in individual clubs.

To aid in this unified whole the state president's stationery should give the national president's and national treasurer's names. On each district president's stationery should appear the state presidents and state treasurer's names.

Every officer and chairman should be subscribers to General Federation News and to state official organ (when we have one), should keep in touch with General Federation Headquarters, and should own (and read) the Texas Federation History.

Miss Galvin moved that name of General Federation President and Treasurer be printed on State Federation stationery and that name of State President and Treasurer be printed on District stationery. Carried.

Miss Gearing, Chairman of Special Finance committee, asked for more time before giving her report. Time granted.

Mrs. C. D. Reimers, Chairman of Badge and Printing Committee, reported that she had new designs for the Federation pin, samples of which she submitted. In order that these might be seen by the Board members before selecting a design for official pin, action was postponed.

Mrs. R. E. Buchanan, Parliamentarian, gave report covering her two year's work.

Mrs. W. H. Moore, Chairman of Program, stated the programs were ready and had been distributed.

Mrs. Fields, Chairman of Civics, emphasized the importance of the clubs signing the Survey cards, continuance of Civics in the schools and requested that the work be done among the negro women, with the view of getting them interested in this line of work. She also exhibited a mosquito survey, which was made by the school boys of Bonham.

Mrs. Young, Chairman Parks and Playgrounds, reported fourteen memorial parks in Texas, and recommended that the survey work be continued.

Mrs. George, Chairman Good Roads, reported that several clubs had written for programs and that a good deal of interest was being shown.

Mrs. G. R. Scott, Chairman of Humane, was called upon and stated that her report would be given at the Educational Conference.

Mrs. Ring, Chairman of Industrial and Social Conditions, called attention to the necessity of having a paid legislative chairman, so that she might spend her entire time looking after our interests at the Legislature.

After local announcements by Mrs. D. C. Webb, Jr., meeting adjourned until 1:30 P. M.

MRS. FLORENCE C. FLOORE, Pres.
MRS. W. H. WENTLAND,
Recording Secretary.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Board convened at 1:30 P. M. Minutes of morning session read and approved. Reports of the committee chairman continued.

Mrs. Butts, Chairman of Fire Prevention, insisted that each club in Texas have a fire prevention committee; that clubs in County seats form one general committee and plan the study of fire prevention in all schools of the country so that by counties we cover the six districts and by districts the entire State.

Mrs. M. Hetty Curry, Chairman of Literature, urged the continuation of the Federation day program and recommended: That the rules and regulations governing the year books shall be published in the Annual, following the rules governing the contests in original composition.

Regulations: The year book shall be uniform in size, 7½x5½ inches. The back shall contain the name of the club, the town, the district, the date and the subject of the course of study. Mrs. Curry announced the Literature, Music and Art conference would be held Friday afternoon from 2 to 4:30.

Miss Mary E. Gearing, Chairman Public Health, reported that her department had been quite active aiding the Red Cross; in placing county health nurses; the Anti-Tuberculosis Society; in its campaign against the disease and in raising funds with which to combat it. The State Department of Health, State Bureau of Child Hygiene, Public Health Association, the University of Texas, the A. & M. College, and the Association for Nursing Education in its effort to secure recruits for the profession.

Mrs. W. S. Douglas, Chairman of Art, stated an increased interest being taken in Art throughout the State. Special efforts had been directed towards placing General and State Federation exhibits. Seventy-two having been held in this State out of which 49 were held in the First District. She also recommended the regulation of the bill board.

Miss Gearing, Chairman of Resolution, announced that Mesdames Ring and Redmond were members of this committee and suggested that any person desiring to offer a resolution in the interest of a certain department should turn such resolution over to the State Chairman of that department and she would present it to the Resolution Committee.

Miss Gearing, moved that a telegram be sent Miss Blanton expressing regret for her absence from meeting. Motion carried. Chair asked Miss Gearing to assist Corresponding Secretary, Miss Galvin, in sending message.

Mrs. Fred Robinson, Legislative Chairman, gave a brief outline of its work and called attention to several bills which the committee worked for.

Mrs. Potter, Chairman Thrift Committee, reported the activities of this committee covering two years. This report showed that the committee had been wideawake and assisted in various ways in developing the Thrift movement.

Mrs. Lovejoy, Chairman Motion Picture Survey, spoke of the need of securing better and cleaner pictures and recommended that they be used in schools and churches.

The Chair called attention to the resolution offered by Mrs. Lyons, representing Mrs. McNutt, and adopted by the Board at its spring meeting in 1921, which is as follows: "That the Texas Federation of Music Clubs pay to the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, as a department of that organization, a flat rate of $25.00 per annum, which shall cover dues of all clubs in the Texas Federation of Music Clubs."

The question then came up as to what representation the Music Federation should have in the General Federation and what part of the $25.00 should be paid into the General Federation treasury. On motion this was referred to a committee. The chair appointed Miss Shelton, Mesdames Martin and Hambrick, members of this committee.

The annual dues prescribed by the Federation appearing excessive to the City Federations and larger clubs brought up considerable discussion. The secretary read a letter from Mrs. Mills of Texarkana, representing the Texarkana Woman's Club, stating that this club was contemplating an increase in membership, but was unwilling to pay the ten cents per capita.

On motion the matter was referred to a committee, composed of Mesdames Curry, Barry and Shaver, to report later.

The Corresponding Secretary called attention to page 16 of the Federation History which states, "the original draft of the Constitution and By-Laws is preserved in the Texas Federation archives, just as it was presented, written in ink on a few sheets of paper, with the signatures of the delegates affixed in their own handwriting, as they severally signed as representatives of their clubs, which thus became the charter members," and asked if anyone present knew the whereabouts of this document. No one seemed to be able to answer, but Mrs. Wentland stated that she would find out upon her return home if this paper is not among her files as Recording Secretary.

The Federation having decided to include the two year's work in the Annual, it will be proper that the title of the publication be changed. On motion of Mrs. Pennybacker this was referred to a committee appointed by the chair with power to act. Motion carried.

The Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Mills of Texarkana, representing the Texarkana Woman's Club, stating that their club was contemplating an increase in membership, but were unwilling to pay the 10 cents per capita. The letter was referred to the committee composed of Mesdames Curry, Barry and Shaver.

A letter was read from the Church Federation of Longview applying for membership. Mrs. Curry moved that if their Constitution was in accordance with the requirements of the State Federation, that same be recommended by the Board. Carried.

Mrs. S. J. Fennell, Chairman Civil Service Reform, in her report emphasized the fact that the importance of this department was not generally understood. Before much could be accomplished a great deal of organization and education would be necessary.

Miss Gray, representing Miss Blanton, presented the following resolution: "Whereas, at present Texas schools and colleges are not providing each Texas child with adequate educational opportunity, and the state support for schools and colleges is uncertain and does not insure recognition and encouragement of training and ability in the teaching profession;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby endorse the submission to the vote of the people of a constitutional amendment whereby there shall be provided a mill tax for the support of our state colleges, the proceeds of which shall be under the direction of the boards of regents of these institutions, and whereby the present state tax of thirty-five cents for public school purposes shall be raised to fifty cents, the proceeds of ten cents of which tax shall be set aside for special aid to rural schools under the direction of the State Board of Education.

The chair called upon Mrs. Fall, past State President, who responded with six words, "Get our institutions out of politics."

Mrs. R. L. Browning, Chairman International Peace, reported briefly and announced the Conservation Peace Conference for Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4:30.

Mrs. Bacon Saunders, Chairman Rules and Regulations Committee, read the Rules and Regulations which should govern the Convention. On motion, report was adopted.

Mrs. Pennybacker deplored the fact that there seemed to be a lack of interest in club work among the young people and recommended that a campaign for membership be inaugurated. Mrs. Pennybacker moved that the Board write to the head of each educational institution where there are women students asking their attitude of said institution concerning the girl's societies joining the State Federation. Motion prevailed.

At this time, Miss West, Vice-President-at-Large, entered and was escorted to the front. The chair called upon her for a greeting to which she responded briefly.

Miss Shelton brought up the question of increasing of the Endowment Fund. The subject was discussed but no definite action taken.

Mrs. W. C. Martin, Chairman Rural Life, read her report and suggested that the $841.84 received from the advertisements in the Precinct Year Book be used as a fund with which to finance an official organ, which is one of the greatest needs of the Federation today. Mrs. Martin said that our work is handicapped because the women are not in closer touch with the Federation and with each other, and because of ignorance of the proceedings of the work of the various committees; therefore, as we can see our way clear to finance an official organ, I suggest that this matter be taken up by the Federation.

Mrs. Martin asked that in the next year's program for the Precinct clubs, the chairman of each department prepare the programs for one month, because each chairman is better acquainted with the particular work of her department.

After local announcements, meeting adjourned.

MORNING SESSION, NOV. 18, 1920.

The Convention was called to order at 9 o'clock by President Mrs. Floore. Invocation given by Dr. Smith. Secretary read the minutes of the morning session of Nov. 17, which were approved. Secretary read minutes of the afternoon conferences of Education and Americanization, Conservation and International Peace of Nov. 16-17, which were approved.

Mrs. Barry reported that Mrs. R. P. Robbins' absence was due to illness, and that she sent greetings to the Convention. Miss Decca Lamar West moved that a telegram be sent Mrs. Robbins expressing our sympathy and regret. Carried.

As the recommendation of the President "That Texas take the lead in forming a Federation of the Gulf and neighboring states" had been adopted, Mrs. Nagle moved that the President be authorized to appoint a committee to confer with the other states which might be interested toward the forming of such a Federation or Conference. Motion carried.

The chair introduced Mrs. Max Oberndorffer, Chm. of Music, G. F. W. C., who responded with a word of greeting.

The President announced that Mesdames Sims, Curry and Nagle were members of the nominating committee and called for report.

Mrs. Sims, Chm. Nominating Committee, announced nomination rules and presented a ticket agreed upon by the committee as follows:

Mesdames Lee Joseph, President, San Antonio; R. P. Robbins, Vice-President-at-Large, Ft. Worth; Dallas Scarborough, Rec. Secy., Abilene; Fred Robinson, Treasurer, Waco; J. Elmer Butler, Auditor, Corsicana.

Report adopted.

Mrs. Butler, Chm. Club Extension, read the names of six clubs applying for membership since her report was given on the first morning of the convention, making a total of 139 clubs with a membership over 15,000. On motion of Mrs. Butler these clubs were made members of the Federation. The First District having added the greatest number of new clubs received the Banner.

Miss Decca Lamar West, presiding, Mrs. Sims, moved that a committee be appointed by the chair to conduct a campaign for Mrs. Florence C. Floore, as the candidate for treasurer of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at the coming election in June, 1922, at Chautauqua, N. Y. Carried.

The Chm. of Credential Committee gave a supplementary report showing 50 officers, 273 delegates, 8 of these being delegates from the Music Federation. Report continued.

Mrs. Hughes, Chm. Press and Mrs. Douglas, Chm. of Art, each read her report. Mrs. Reimers, Chm. Badge and Printing Committee, reported the adoption of the official pin by the Board of Directors. The new design is the "Texas star, of blue bonnet blue enamel, surrounded by a laurel wreath of gold. In the center of the star are the letters Texas F. W. C.—Gold pins 3.50, and gold plated $1.50. Mrs. Reimers moved the adoption of her report. Carried.

Mrs. James Hambrick, President, Texas Fed. of Music Clubs; Mrs. Curry, Chm. Literature; Miss Mary Gearing, Chm. Public Health, and Mrs. Potter, Chm. Thrift, each read her report covering the work in her respective department. Mrs. Wentland moved the adoption of the reports as a whole. Carried.

The following City and County Federations reported: Waco, Brownsville, Abilene, Brownwood, Coleman, El Paso (City Federations). Dewitt, Coleman (County Federation). The reports of the County and City Federations brought to attention so many big things accomplished that one who heard them could not keep from becoming enthused with a desire to work harder than ever. Not a subject suggested by the Federation seems to have been overlooked. In addition generous financial and personal aid had been rendered to Hospitals, Rest Rooms, Traveling Libraries for Rural Schools, etc. On motion these reports were adopted as a whole.

Mrs. Bacon Saunders, Fort Worth, gave a very helpful well organized and inspiring address on the "Child and the Wonder Story," stressing the child's right to his rich inheritance of classic and folk literature, and urging the mothers to give their children the safe and sane stories of the old masters. The charming poems from Tagore so beautifully read by Mrs. S. E. Buchanan, touched a responsive chord in every heart.

Mrs. Day Mills, Texarkana, mentioned a few good things that her club had done.

Miss Galvin, Cor. Secy., read the following amendment, which had been passed by the Board of Directors: That Art. 3, Sec. 1, of the By-Laws be amended by striking out the figure 10—after "additional," and inserting the figure "2." The article would then read—"The annual dues for each club shall be $5.00 for every club of 25 members or less, and an additional 2 cents per capita for members in excess of "25." Miss Galvin moved the adoption of the amendment. Motion carried.

Mrs. Potter, Chm. Re-Districting Committee, moved that Ford County be transferred from First to Seventh District. Motion carried.

Mrs. Pennybacker, Chm. American Citizenship Dept., G. F. W. C., spoke of the great good to be had by the general observance of Citizenship Day and emphasized the wonderful opportunities the club women had to lead in this work, and stated that a supply of literature on the subject could be obtained from her, or from General Federation Headquarters. A general and interesting discussion followed, led by Mesdames Sims and Turner.

Mrs. Moore read some announcements covering the program for afternoon and evening.

MORNING SESSION, NOVEMBER 19th, 1921

The meeting was opened at 9 o'clock by President Mrs. Florence C. Floore. Invocation given by Dr. Fox. Minutes of the preceding session read and approved.

The Recording Secretary moved that the reading of minutes covering Conferences of Rural Life on Wednesday afternoon, and Legislative, Civil Service Reform, Motion Picture, Parliamentary Law, Industrial and Social Conditions, and Civics, on Thursday afternoon; Music, Literature, Art, Home Economics and Public Health, on Friday afternoon, be referred to the Executive Committee for adoption. Carried.

Mrs. Ring read the resolutions presented by Miss Gearing at the morning's session, Nov. 18, together with the Courtesy resolutions. The latter were adopted as a whole while the former were taken up, considered and adopted singly. (See Resolutions adopted by the Twenty-Fourth Annual Convention elsewhere included). Upon motion of Mrs. Ring they were adopted as a whole.

Mrs. Barry, Chm. Re-organization Committee, gave her report which is given in full in Board Minutes of Nov. 15th. Report adopted.

Mrs. Barry, Chm. of Special Committee on Negro Problem, gave a report (See page —).

Mrs. Barry moved the adoption of this report; that the committee be dissolved and the work be placed under the Department of Social and Industrial Conditions with a chairman designated to collect and classify data received as called for in the report. Motion carried.

Mrs. Sims, Chm. Nominating Committee, read the names of candidates. Ballots were then passed.

The chair appointed Mesdames Donald, Fields and Miss Mullins tellers.

Chairman Miss Mullins made the final report for the Credential Committee, Officers and Delegates, 268; guests registered, 124. Total, 392. Report adopted.

Miss Decca Lamar West read an item from a newspaper of Nov. 19, announcing the appointment of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, as a member of the Educational Survey Committee, by Gov. Neff, and moved that a telegram be sent to Gov. Neff, thanking him for the recognition of work of the Federation for Education in the appointment of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker on the committee to investigate the Educational Institutions of the State. Motion carried.

Mrs. Pennybacker moved that Mrs. Maggie Barry be elected a permanent member of the Executive Board. Carried unanimously. At the suggestion of Miss West, Mesdames Sims and Nagle were requested to escort Mrs. Barry to the platform—but, Mrs. Barry was not in the room at the time. Corresponding Secretary reported that there would be no reduction in railroad fares as to the minimum certificates required had not been secured.

Music—Selected by Mesdames Ellen Jane Lindsey, T. H. Hubbard and Dan Brown.

The following message from Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at this time a member of the Advisory Committee for the Great Arms Conference assembled in Washington, was read by the President, and unanimously endorsed by the convention body.

To nations as to individual men there come great crises and great tides of opportunity. Such a time is ours now, for it lies in the hands of the three or four dominant governments of the world to decide whether the future shall hold a cataclysm when poison gasses, bombs, and great guns shall wreck civilization, or whether we shall agree to live on this little whirling globe in decent relations with each other. And of all nations, this country of ours, the most stable of governments, the most prosperous of peoples, the great lovers of peace and proclaimers of the possibility of justice and humanity among men, of all nations this country has the supreme chance to guide the tumultuous waters of the modern world into the currents of peace. America can't do it alone. It must be an agreement of the strong. But when the President of the United States, realizing this crucial moment, beckons the others to such a conference as that which is now convening in Washington, it behooves every all-American to get behind him and push. The world is crying out for peace in horror at the past and fear of the future. The balance hangs in our hands. Science is offering the war leaders such fiendishly perfected agencies of death as promise to annihilate not only soldiers, but peaceful cities wholesale. On the other side science and industry are offering a smiling world full of appliances that may make life sweeter and happier and give great leisure for the things that glorify existence. This is the crucial time. Stand by the President in taking the first steps toward international agreements to beat our swords into ploughshares.

Chair announced that Mrs. J. C. Reynolds of Port Arthur would take charge of the Memorial Service. The roll of those who have passed on was read with a fitting tribute for each as the name was called by Mrs. Reynolds.

"In Memoriam" was sung by Mrs. T. Holt Hubbard. All standing Mrs. Reynolds closed the services with a prayer.

The chair called for invitations for the next meeting place. Cordial invitations were extended by Houston, Denton, and Mineral Wells. The chair announced that the invitations would be referred to the Board of Directors.

Mrs. Mollyneaux, being present, Mrs. Pennybacker moved that the chair appoint a committee to escort him to the platform. Motion carried.

Chm. Nominating Committee brought in the results of the ballot as follows:

President, Mrs. Lee Joseph, San Antonio.

Vice-Pres.-at-Large, Mrs. R. P. Robbins, Fort Worth.

Recording Secretary, Mrs. Dallas Scarborough, Abilene.

Treasurer, Mrs. Fred Robinson, Waco.

Auditor, Mrs. J. Elmer Butler, Corsicana.

With a few scattering votes which were not announced, the chair then called for other nominations. Mrs. Leigh moved the nominations close. Motion carried.

Mrs. Buchaann moved that the nominating ballot be made the elective ballot and the Recording Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot. Motion prevailed. Accordingly the Secretary cast the vote for the nominees mentioned above. The Convention then ratified the election of the Presidents of the several Districts and Vice-Pres. of the Federation.

First District, Mrs. Walter S. Robertson, Wichita Falls.

Second District, Mrs. E. D. Criddle, Denton.

Third District, Mrs. R. F. Lindsey, Mt. Pleasant.

Fifth District, Mrs. J. C. George, Brownsville.

Sixth District, Miss Minnie Cunningham, Comanche.

Seventh District, Mrs. Carl Goodman, Abernathy.

Mrs. Floore then asked that the newly elected officers be escorted to the platform.

President Mrs. Joseph suggested Mrs. Oscar J. Fox as Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Fox was unanimously elected to this office. All the new officers were then introduced, each signifying her desire to do her very best in the office to which she had been chosen.

Mrs. Barry was escorted to the platform by Mesdames Sims and Nagle, and accepted with appreciation the honor conferred upon her as Perpetual Ex-officio member Executive Board.

Mrs. Floore expressed her best wishes for the success of the new administration. Mrs. Wentland moved that the minutes of the morning session be referred to the Executive Board for adoption. Carried.

The committee for managing campaign for office of Treasurer in General Federation, presenting Mrs. Florence C. Floore, are as follows: Mesdames M. W. Sims, Bryan; H. B. Fall, Houston; W. C. Martin, Dallas; Percy V. Pennybacker, Austin; Lee Joseph, San Antonio; Mrs. Maggie W. Barry, College Station; L. T. Shaver, San Marcos; R. E. Buchanan, Ft. Worth; M. P. Bewley, Ft. Worth; Bacon Saunders, Ft. Worth; Olga Kohlberg, El Paso; A. H. Abernathy, Cleburne; Chas. Mills, Corsicana; J. E. Butler, Corsicana; W. A. Adams, San Antonio; C. M. Hughes, Wharton; Leila Johnston, Coleman; H. F. Ring, Houston; W. E. Spell, Waco; J. C. Nagle, Gearing, Austin, and Carrie Galvin, Cleburne, and College Station; Hetty Curry, Bryan; Misses Mary others whose names were not ascertained at this time.

Mrs. Joseph asked that the new officers and others whose names were read meet her immediately after adjournment.

After singing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," the Twenty-Fourth Annual Convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs stood adjourned, sine die.

MRS. FLORENCE C. FLOORE,

President.

MRS. W. H. WENTLAND,

Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Scott then read the following Resolutions which were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS.

1. Whereas, The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs is primarily an educational organization in the broad meaning of the term and related to political activities largely from the educational side, and

Whereas, The membership of the organization is made up of women of different political creeds and affiliations, and

Whereas, Ample opportunity may be found by Clubs in individuals to inform themselves as to merits of different candidates for political offices and the time of the District and State Conventions is too limited to hear discussions of both sides of political issues,

Be it resolved: That the Board of Directors of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs recommends that no time be given on the programs of District and State Conventions for speakers who are avowed candidates for political offices or who are generally known by the public as candidates.

2. Courtesy Resolution (a copy of which was not given to Recording Secretary) were adopted, extending thanks of the Federation to all of the people in Austin who had helped to make this meeting so pleasant and successful.

Resolved, That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs publicly denounce the present system of discipline at our State Reformatory School for Boys at Gatesville, and request a change in the system of management in order that the institution may be more humanely and efficiently conducted; and

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of the State Board of Control.

Resolved, That this Federation do heartily endorse the movement to establish a state park in Texas and recommend the establishment of County Parks as provided for by Texas Laws.

Whereas, Education is of primary importance to the Nation and therefore should receive primary recognition,

Whereas, A Department of Education would make possible a more effective administration of many of the educational activities now distributed throughout several departments of the Federal government, and

Whereas, We should make better provision for Federal leadership in educational research and development, and

Whereas, To accomplish a great national purpose, there must be a national center from which shall radiate national influences, and

Whereas, A Secretary of Education would assume our proper participation in the solution of International Educational problems,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in convention assembled, endorse and pledge their support of the Stirling-Towner Bill H. R. 7.

Whereas, The Armenian nation is the oldest Christian nation in existence and has defended its Christian faith in spite of long opposition by fire and sword, and

Whereas, Distressing conditions still prevail in the Near East among the Armenians and others in the land of our Holy Bible, and

Whereas, There are thousands of homeless refugees and helpless orphans suffering from hunger and cold because their relatives have suffered martyrdom for the Christian faith, or have given themselves and their property in behalf of the Allies during the War, and

Whereas, The Near East Relief has been incorporated by Congress of the United States and authorized to provide food, clothing and other necessities for these persecuted and suffering people, and

Whereas, We desire that America shall become synonymous with service wherever human need is felt.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the State Federation of Woman's Clubs heartily endorse the Near East Relief and pledge the co-operation of its members in securing our State's quota of needed funds.

Whereas, Visual education is recognized as an important factor in education by our best educators.

Be It Resolved, That the Federation endorse more extensive use of educational films in our schools and class rooms.

Whereas, Educated citizenship is essential to a safe and sane democratic government, and

Whereas, An educated citizenship is dependent upon a continuously efficient system of public education, and

Whereas, A continuously efficient system of public education is not possible without stable and continuous financial support,

Be It Resolved, That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, believes that the present educational situation in Texas demands that the friends, supporters and directors of education should get together and by concerted action evolve some plan by which public education may be placed on a more stable and satisfactory financial basis than that made possible by the present plan of direct appropriation by the Legislature every two years.

Be It Also Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent by the President of the incoming administration to the Presidents of the University, A. & M. College, College of Industrial Arts, each of the Normal Schools and presidents of the Boards of Trustees of these schools and to the superintendent of Public Instruction, pledging support of this organization to such concerted plan.

Whereas, Texas is spending thousands of dollars in highways and in other states such highways have been rendered unsightly by the erection of enormous billboards, many of these having appeared in our own state also; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs hereby petition the legislature to pass regulations concerning billboard advertising on or near to public highways, or to place the power to do so in the hands of some commission in order to safeguard the rights of the people to the full enjoyment of the roads which they are taxed to maintain from the aggression of private enterprise known in other states as the billboard nuisance.

Whereas, The stronger nations of the world have it in their power to agree upon a plan for limiting their armaments and so lessening both the danger of future destructive wars and the terrible economic burden that now lies upon all peoples, and

Whereas, The President of the United States has called an international conference to consider both the principles and the methods of reduction of armaments, thus taking the leadership in the movement, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That we will give time, strength and thoughtful study to this problem and that we will earnestly strive to strengthen public sentiment in favor of such reduction of armaments through agreement between nations.

Realizing the necessity of concerted action on the part of the women of the world concerning the whole question of armament the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs respectfully suggest to the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the advisability of calling a conference of women of all nations should such actions seem feasible to the General Federation authorities.

Whereas, Efficient work in the Districts depends upon the co-operation of State Chairman, District Presidents and District Chairman, Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved, That each District President upon assuming office shall furnish to her District Chairmen a complete roster of the clubs in their respective Districts.

Whereas, The Moving Picture and Vaudeville Shows which enter Texas have a decided tendency to over-step the bounds of propriety, and border on the immoral, and

Whereas, Our young people are largely dependent upon these shows for diversion, and such influences tend to weaken their respect for high ideals, and

Whereas, A State Censor would cover many communities not now under censorship,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the State Federation of Women's Clubs urgently recommend to Executive and Legislative Bodies of our State, that a Censorship Board be established.

Be It Resolved, That the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs go on record as approving the principle established in the passing of the Norris Bill, viz.: That all large commercial industries dealing with distribution and storage of food supplies shall be subject to government regulations.

Whereas, The sublime courage, valor, patriotism and self-sacrifice shown by the men who participated in the World War has laid on the people of

This Is Your Handy Book--Use It

When in doubt about information regarding state work look carefully through this book before writing your officers. This book has been compiled to meet the needs of club women.

Before forming Rural Life Clubs study carefully the Precinct Year Book, contained herein. If further information is desired about Precinct Clubs, write the Rural Life Chairman, Mrs. W. C. Martin, Oriental Hotel, Dallas, Texas.

The President of each club will receive a copy to be kept by her as club property and passed on to her successor. This book will also be sent to officers of the State Federation, State and District Chairmen of Departments, Divisions and Committees, to General Federation Headquarters, the General Federation News and to General Federation Officers.

Attention is called to the messages of the General and State Federation Presidents, to the State President's Recommendations and to "Madame Club President—Do You Know."

Study the RESOLUTIONS passed at the last two conventions. They are an education in themselves. The members of the Federation are pledged to further these projects.

Read the State Constitution and By-Laws and become acquainted with the machinery of the Federation.

Study the map on page —; note the divisions into Districts and the counties that belong to the several Districts.

After you have carefully studied and digested the contents of this book, you will understand what the Federation means, and that your part in it, however small, helps to make it a perfect whole.

Officers and Chairmen of Committees should prepare a condensed report for publication in the Year Book—Officers' reports 500 words, Chairmen's reports 250 words. These reports should be typewritten.

If you are going to be a worker you should KNOW the Federation. To do this read the History of the first twenty years of the Federation. Only a few copies left. Price $2.00 each. Write Miss Kate Friend, 523 Terrace Row, Waco, Texas.

State Chairman are urged to send copy of their annual report to the Corresponding Chairman of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

"GAS LIGHTS OUT!"

Announcing his visit with loud tappings on the sidewalk, the gas inspector would promptly turn off the gas at the street if his command of "Gas Lights Out!" was not obeyed. The occupants of the house would then resort to candles or oil lamps.

That is what happened in the old days, when gas was supplied to people by contract, to be used for lighting purposes from sunset to a certain hour at night.

Today, thanks to the invention of the gas meter, no such inconvenience exists.

An instrument of accurate measurement, durable and dependable, the meter permits gas to be used at any time, in any quantity desired, assuring our customers that they pay only for what they get, while we are assured of receiving payment only for what we supply.

Truthfully may it be said:

There is no commodity on earth dispensed to the public with greater justice to the buyer and seller than manufactured gas.

Linked Together in Service

THE purpose of education is service, and we require an education in order to be able to render higher service. The great educational factors are:

THE CHURCH—Through its ministers
THE SCHOOL—Through its teachers
THE NEWSPAPER—Through its editors

These are not all the educational mediums, but they are the most unselfish, for the men and women engaged in these pursuits get their greatest reward through service.

In a modest way the telephone is an educational factor, and it is our greatest pleasure to serve adequately.

HISTORY OF THE RURAL LIFE COMMITTEE

At the meeting of the Texas State Federation of Women's Clubs at Port Arthur, November 17, 1919, the need of county organization as a medium through which the Federation work might be done efficiently was emphasized in reports from every department. This, then, seems to be the logical starting point for the Rural Life Committee. Our attention must be directed to the problems peculiar to the rural world.

The country has as great a need and as much right to have a club as the city. Something over half the people of Texas still live in the country. Many leading authorities on rural problems feel that the Precinct Clubs are one of the biggest pieces of work ever undertaken by the Texas Federation toward the solution of the rural problem of Texas.

There are, however, three fair questions which naturally occur to anyone on first hearing of the enterprise, namely:

Who is back of it?

What is the object of it?

What subjects does it cover?

WHO IS BACK OF IT?

TEXAS FEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUBS

WHAT IS THE OBJECT OF IT?

The object of the Country Rural Life and Precinct Clubs briefly stated is: To assemble the facts which are needed as a basis for practical efforts to improve rural conditions. When the precinct survey is completed, there will be available in tangible form exactly the information which is most needed by every organization, every community, and every individual desiring to construct a practical, working program for the betterment of country life in any particular.

One of the most important features in the survey is the discovery, in each community of agencies that are making progress and what each one is doing. Only when we know what is already being done can we say what still needs to be done.

The facts revealed by this investigation will be tabulated and shown on county and precinct maps and charts in such a way that the people of any community can see for themselves just what are the strong and weak points of their community life, and just how they compare with other communities. Thus the Precinct Chairman will not only provide the necessary data for outside agencies seeking to set up programs of rural betterment, but, also, it is hoped, will arouse a new interest and inspire a new vision in hundreds of people throughout the state. Many counties and communities will want intensive local studies, in which the Rural Life Club will help and guide them. All over the state on the basis of the facts brought out by the Precinct Chairman, communities will set up for themselves forward looking programs for the enrichment of their own life.

SUBJECTS

WHAT SUBJECTS DOES IT COVER?

The co-operative study of home, school, and civic problems, as well as enterprises of social, literary, musical, and artistic interest. This will include household management, sanitary and hygienic problems, labor saving devices, hot school lunches, playgrounds, parks, and the vital problems of every community. Besides the roads, there are school houses and grounds uniformly neglected; rural cemeteries equally neglected; rural churches and rural grounds even more neglected; county parks and playgrounds and libraries still to be acquired.

WHAT TO DO AND HOW?

This thing of forming the County and Precinct Clubs sound like an ambitious program. Yet the undertaking is as simple as breathing, and perfectly certain of success. All we have to do is to get out program clearly before our eyes and then

—FOR IT

This is a system which cannot be withstood—strategy which cannot be defeated. Finally, we are going to wait patiently for results. It takes time to accomplish results, and the greater the results, the more time it takes. But, if we have mapped out a simple, practical program, leaving out all the nonsense, then if we put this fairly before the public, and keep it everlastingly there, all sane and useful people will eventually adopt the idea and a little later they will act upon it. If from time to time we can show by concrete achievement what Country Clubs really do, it will help along the cause.

PLAN OF ORGANIZING COUNTRY LIFE AND PRECINCT CLUBS.

Organize Each County With Headquarters at County Seat.

County Rural Life Club Which Should Form County Federation.

(a) The sole purpose of this club shall be to organize, foster, or aid rural women's clubs in every precinct or community in the country.

(b) This club should send name and address of its President to the District Chairman of Rural Life and communicate with the District Chairman once each month of the club year, and the District Chairman shall likewise report to the State Chairman.

Plan of Work.

(a) Divide the club into committees of one or more women for each precinct.

(b) To each committee assign a definite voting precinct or community for which that committee will be responsible, making regular reports of work done or existing conditions in each precinct of the County Rural Life Club.

(c) The personnel of these committees should be carefully selected. Whenever possible, find women who are personally interested in the precincts or communities to which they are assigned.

The benefits to be derived from the precinct organization should be a Community Center for your club.

SUGGESTION FOR COMMITTEES OF COUNTY RURAL LIFE CLUBS.

Make a Personal Survey of the Precinct or Community Assigned You.

(a) If there is no woman's club in the precinct or community, find out if they would like to have one. Cards for this purpose to be sent to the women in the community will be furnished by Rural Life Club. These cards will read as follows:

Precinct No..... County of.....
Have you a club in your community?.....
Would you like a club, and what kind?.....
If so, come to: Place.....
Day..... Hour.....
Name
Address

(b) Plan of organization for precinct or county clubs:

The Chairman of the committee of the County Rural Life Club sending out the cards or issuing call, should act as temporary chairman of the club to be organized. She will appoint someone as temporary secretary, call the meeting together, and appoint a committee of three to draft a constitution. (It is advisable to adopt constitution in Year Book.) Central Rural Life Clubs should arrange a meeting for the first Monday in the month, which should be a business meeting, to discuss with the committees business of the precinct club. The precinct club should meet on Friday of each week at the school house in the community, time to be decided on.

On the last Saturday in each month the Rural Life Club should meet in the county seat, each precinct club giving report of work done in their club and a program to be prepared, in which such subjects as poultry raising, dairy, and gardening be discussed. Also talks by representatives from the home demonstration agents of A. & M. and Extension Department of the State University, College of Industrial Arts, or other state institutions, County Nurse or Health Officer, Thrift Chairman, Farm Bureau Representatives, and teachers from the precincts or communities, Young Women's Christian Association, for information and bulletins on Recreation and other activities address or write 1515 Commerce St., and they will be glad to furnish the information desired. Also State Headquarters of Red Cross, 905 Main Street, Dallas, Texas.

Clubs desiring speakers who will outline the advantages derived from federating or any work done by the Federation will communicate with the Chairman Bureau of Information, Mrs. Robert Browning, Terrell, Texas, or Speakers Bureau, Mrs. J. L. Young, Mineral Wells, Texas.

SUGGESTIONS ON PLANNING PROGRAMS FOR WEEKLY MEETINGS PRECINCT CLUBS.

The work is divided into four types of program:

School problems.

Civics.

Literary.

Social meetings.

Should any club day fall on a legal holiday, the program on that day should be changed to be fitting for the said legal holiday.

The Rural Life Club of each county will furnish speakers from its Speakers' Bureau of the county. The College of Industrial Arts, Texas University, and County Home Demonstration Agents will give demonstrations on School Problems and Home Economics. Speakers from the Welfare Departments of the cities and state, Mother's Congress, Parent-Teachers Association, Thrift Chairmen, County Health Officer or Nurse, Y. W. C. A. Agents, can be obtained to bring added interest to the club.

Special programs are to be arranged for four campaigns to be carried on by women throughout the entire State of Texas. There will be special weeks set aside for these programs, and your club will be notified and literature will be sent. These programs will be:

1. Child Welfare.
2. Health.
3. Americanization.
4. Clean Up Week.

The success of your club will depend upon the interest, work and co-operation of the individuals. Programs should be planned so that every member will have some part in the program during the year.

Make every meeting count. Plan to have results from every meeting if only some small gain is made each month. At the end of the year results will stimulate interest for a bigger program the following year.

Some of the suggested projects for the club to undertake are:

1. Hot lunch for school.
2. Scales in the school.
3. Beautification of grounds.
4. Sanitary drinking fountains in town and school.
6. Library.
7. Better moving pictures.
8. Rural parks.
9. Public Health Nurse.
10. Better music and pictures in schools.
11. Child Health Conference.
12. Clothing contests.
13. Rest room.
14. Social Center or Community House.

These are only suggestions. What does your town or precinct need? Have your club undertake one main project for the year.

Have your Secretary write immediately for the Mutual Understanding

A polecat on a highway gets more attention than a violet on a mossy bank—but it's not the kind of attention that inspires the desire to know that party better.

The cause of most trouble in this world is lack of mutual understanding and helpfulness.

Short reel subjects, comedies, travelogues, scenics, educational subjects. Price: $12.50 per program.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Bureau of Extension

Division of Visual Instruction

The recreational motion pictures which we recently listed and which we sent to our patrons throughout the state can be obtained through the Division for the sum of $12.50 for each program. This money must be sent to the Division at least a week before the exhibition date. It will be necessary for the patron to give us approximate dates for each film and we will in turn have the exchange give you the exact dates on which you may use them. The exchange will always give you sufficient time to thoroughly advertise each program.

Many of these recreational films are recent releases and all of them are high class. We wish to state frankly that it is not the intention of the University to dictate to schools and communities their policy of recreation by means of motion pictures. Some member of our force has seen these films and in the opinion of the reviewers, they can be used in community recreation.

All these releases are theatrical and have been shown by the regular theatrical trade. They contain fewer objectionable features than many of the releases that have been shown in the theatres. If you desire synopsis of the releases they will be sent you.

Short reel subjects such as Paramount, Art-Craft, and Burton-Holmes Travelogues, etc., may be obtained for $2.50 per day. Kindly write us if you desire to contract for the reels found in the enclosed list.

Yours very truly,
WILLIAM R. DUFFEY,
Head Visual Instruction.

SUGGESTIONS.

County has power on vote to levy tax to acquire rural parks.

County Commissioners Court in Texas has the power to levy a tax of five cents on each $1.00 assessed valuation for the purchase and improvement of lands for use as County Parks. The proposition has to be submitted to and ratified by the property tax paying voters of the county at a general election, or special election. It takes a two-thirds majority vote to authorize the levy.

Benefit to be derived from county parks.—The country's need of County Parks is becoming more generally realized as time passes. With the advent of automobiles, this need has been greatly augmented, for they make it possible to reach such parks by all the people of a county, and in so many cases where it has heretofore been practically impossible to get the people of the entire county together for any purposes, it is now easily done. uses to which these parks are adapted are these:

1. A general meeting place for the people of the entire county, or of a community for any purpose that may be found necessary.

2. A place for political speaking and celebrations, camp meetings, etc.

3. A place where base ball, field sports, and athletics generally may be indulged and enjoyed, for it has been well said that "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

4. A place for picnics and similar holiday gatherings.

5. A place for meetings of farmers' organizations of every kind where the business men of the cities and towns can also meet when they wish, and where both country and city people may come together and discuss various matters which concerns the public generally, or for recreation.

The establishing of a county park is not, as a rule, a very costly matter. It often happens that there is a splendid site for the purpose on land that is not well adapted to farming purposes. Sometimes rocky, rugged land is best adapted to the purpose of a county park, since such ground is sometimes picturesque and scenic in its beauty.

Then again it is often the case that some public-spirited citizen will donate sufficient land for park purposes, as they so often do in the cities and towns. By so doing the public-spirited citizen not only does a patriotic act but at the same time causes his land to increase in value for the establishment of a county park naturally increases the value of all land adjacent to it; indeed, for the whole county, for those seeking homes will at once judge such a county as being composed of progressive and enlightened citizens.

A LITTLE TALK ABOUT RELIGION

By Comer M. Woodward, Head of the Department of Sociology, S. M. U.

Its Nature:

Relationships are the soil out of which religion grows. They extend in two main directions, the first, Godward, the second, manward. A commandment in the scriptures makes this plain. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind." And further, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Jesus said that there is no greater commandment than this. Religion is belief in God, reverence for God and love towards God. It is also justice, sympathy, kindness, helpfulness, love towards all of our fellow men. It recognizes the immortality of the soul of man. It binds us all up together with God and with men. It gives satisfaction and dignity and power to life on this side of the grave. Much of religion is reason, reflection and thought. More of it is feeling, attitudes, emotions. It is also aspiration and hope, energy and activity. It is being and doing, thinking and acting.

Life is a serious thing. People cannot live well together if they have only houses and lands and material things even though they have all of these in plenty. Man is not all back and stomach. He cannot live by bread alone. He is also a spirit. His life must have in it also great spiritual vitality. For this, religion is the very best source. It develops spiritual power, gives us a worthy motive and stimulates us to use it in worthwhile activities. The more real religion we have the better we get on with people and the better they get on with us.

II. Its Purpose:

(1) Some people seem to regard religion as a sort of fire insurance to protect them against some things which they are afraid may happen to them in the world to come. Others think of it as a means by which they may get to heaven. But these are not the real purpose of religion. It is our Great Father's provision for us by which we can become the kind of people that he wishes us to be. God needs noble characters in which he can live and through which he can work in this world. It can be so. Jesus said pray, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." If we ever get to heaven it will be because we have done God's will in this world. Those who will receive most of good in heaven will be those who have done most to help God make this world as much as possible like heaven.

(2) Religion must furnish satisfaction, peace of soul, and sense of rightness with God and with men. But it must do more than this. It is not like some kinds of medicine, viz., for internal use only. It must be used or it will decay and die. It must make us helpful to everybody. It fits us for service. This was Jesus' idea about it. He said that man is the greatest who serves others the most and the best. The individual improves in goodness and greatness as he learns to serve others. He who tries to see that others receive what they should have more surely finds that which he himself needs. It is the same way with a community or a neighborhood.

III. Its Method:

Religion helps us to find the best way of doing things. It enables us to see straight and also to get the right attitudes. (1) For instance, our attitude towards the earth. God made the earth. Even to save his life man cannot create a foot of land. God's children must have bread. They must have an un-failing source for food. To this end the earth was made. It is sacred and holy. He sins who abuses the soil or who works with it triflingly. He who does his best as he works with the soil and recognizes that he works together with God, is to that extent doing religious work and is living a religious life. It takes both God and man to raise a crop.

(2) The family brings to us great joys. It also involves us in great cares and responsibilities. It is the most important institution in the world. "Nothing human is so identified with all that that is divine as is the family." It is largely for the family that our other most important institutions exist. It is God's ordained means for the birth of new life, for the reproduction of the race. He cannot manifest himself in our world except to and through human lives. There must be a constant incoming stream of life to replenish the life that passes on. This is the great purpose of the family. It "shares the creative prerogative of the life-giver." Through it new life is not only born but is initiated into this complex world. Through it is transmitted to us the social heritage of the past, the ideas that have been found to be most important and the successful way of doing things, tested and proven by those who have lived before us. Good true fatherhood and motherhood are the greatest and noblest possible human achievements. The family is really the birthplace of religion. According to Jesus it furnishes the types and terms for our best understanding of the nature of the Kingdom of God which is composed of all those who live towards God as a Father and towards all men as brothers and sisters. Religion is for the family its best source of help, satisfaction and protection. (3) The church is the institution through which religion is organized and expresses itself. It should have the allegiance of all who desire to mean most to God and to man. Life in the community that has no church would scarcely be tolerable. It has been said, "The hopes of the future in building a sound rural civilization depends upon the efficiency with which the rural church performs its service." The church should be the center and the inspiration of our idealism, aspirations, motives and efforts in the whole round of our personal and community interests and activities. In religion is our strength. It is the hope and the pledge of a new heaven and a new earth.
